OLE MISS

... a year
of Quality,
Integrity, and Progress.

1 9 6 4

This is now, the present, the year. In remembrance, time will obliterate all save a few moments which form golden chains to the fleeting days of youth—moments of the birth of a mature individual into a troubled world; moments of a life that, through it all, maintains a certain dignity, a definite quality that is the University of Mississippi.

Here are found those priceless links of companionship, friendship, and fragments of joy tying the hastening days together. Here, through continuous closeness with humanity, the person awakens and struggles for identity.

Out of the masses lost in confusion, individuals emerge with a purpose, each purpose as varied as the individual himself. Some are shallow, only for the present; others are deeper rooted with emphasis on the future. Now the pathway clears and the resemblance of order gradually stabilizes existence.

But this organization spasmodically shatters as activity reaches a high-pitched momentum. Inhibitions fall away and the freed spirit revels in expression.

Tradition, kept alive by steadfast loyalty, anchors the yesterday with tomorrow in the hearts of Rebels today, and Southern hospitality in the finest style lies immersed in these buildings, these people.

Interwoven throughout the chain of life are the recalled moments of timeless conflict, pensive anxiety, despair, victory, defeat, and success. The group effort, the single effort works toward a predetermined goal. The result can be failure and disappointment, but the pursuit onward continues, following readjustment and evaluation of the situation; or triumph can bring elation and the rapture of a dream becoming a reality. Whether through physical action or through mental action, integrity forms the basis for judgment and decision.

The present endures only for an instant; the future must be given thought. Here, too, is the opportunity for shining expectations to be freely shared and built upon. They must be caught and established within the moment for even now the desperate surging of Time is felt. Each minute has to be captured and well-spent. Through the darkness, numberless souls eternally seek knowledge, grope for the unknown, guided by a book and a mind.

Knowledge comes, but not without effort. Toil, trial, error, experimentation eventually disentangle the mad jumble of facts and frustration. The exertion has not been in vain, for one learns that intellect and wisdom broaden when forced to strive for truth.

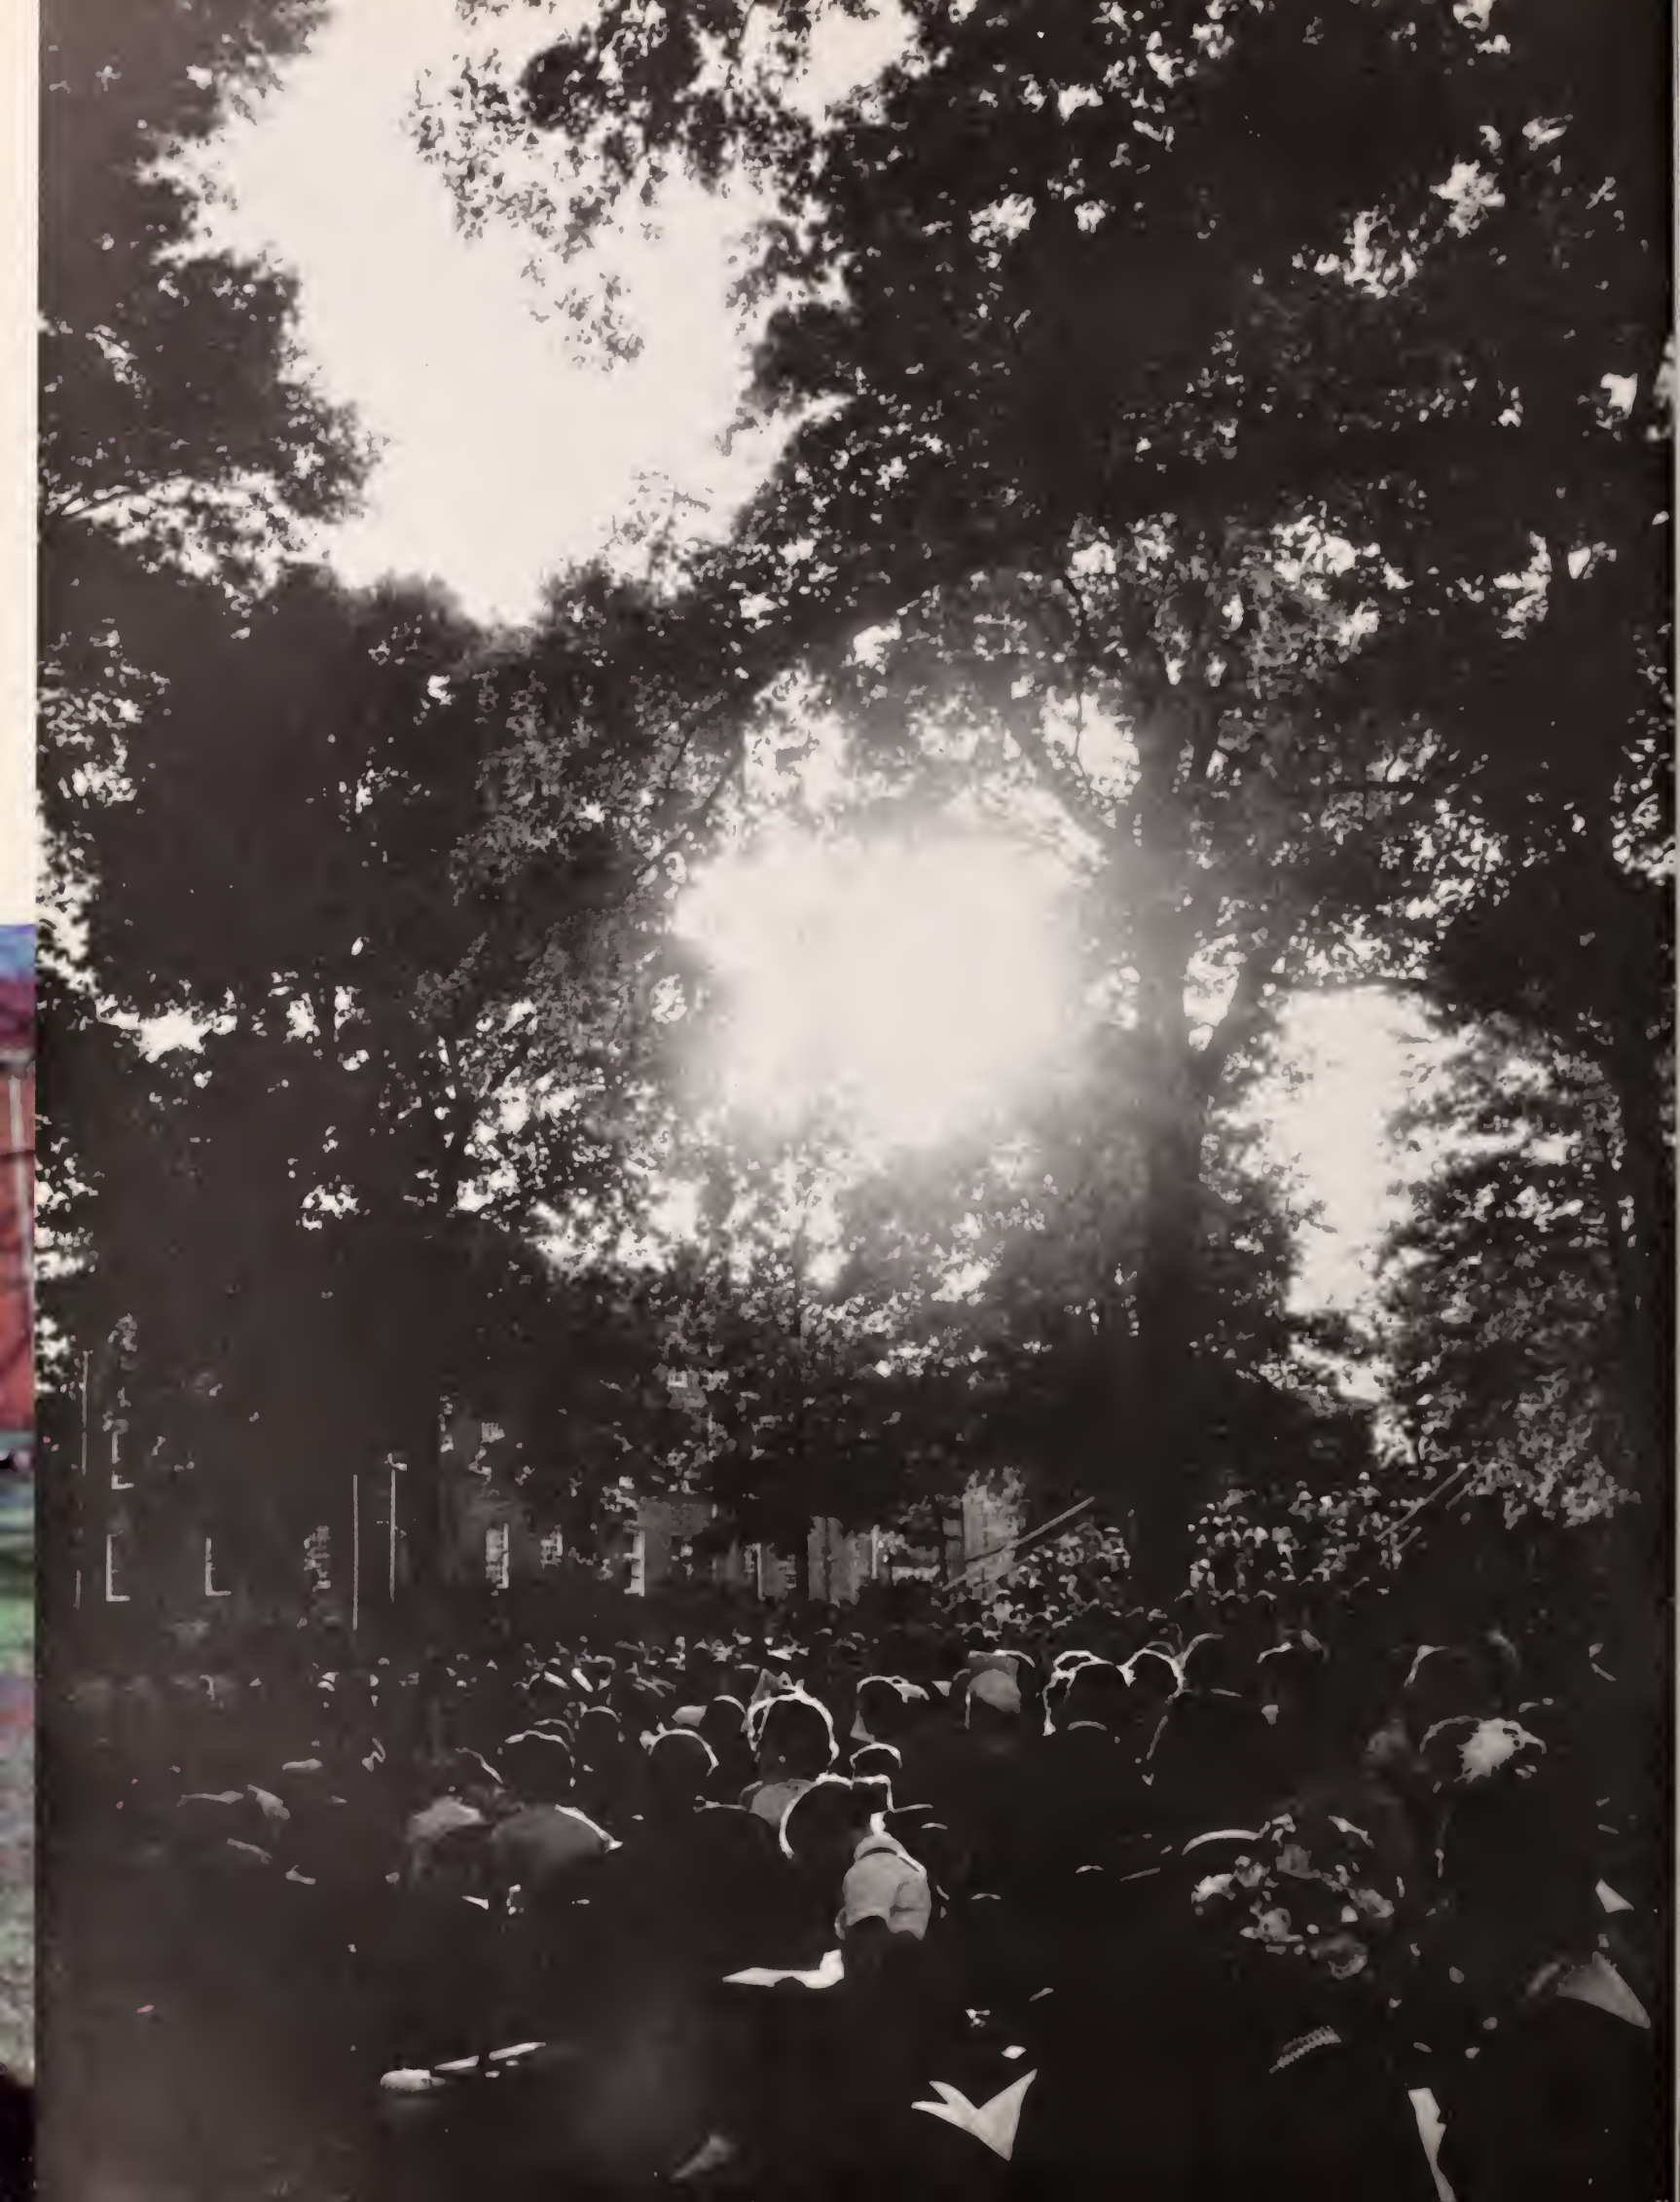

The unrelenting, absolute flow of life finds moments of pleasure to grasp and hold dear, linking coming years to now. An escape from responsibility, from care and worry, weaves its way into each being—it is here on waves of fantasy and is all too soon swept away.

At last comes the culmination of a set of dreams, a destination completed, bringing joy in itself, not in gain or reward. A golden moment of success bursts and hovers in the air. The world is beyond. The desire to conquer is in each individual, and for a very short while, the future is resplendent with glory. Progress has just begun.

The year is gone, a part of yesterday, leaving its brilliant moments in man's memory. Only the remembrance of experiences, faces, emotions, and places remains, forming the golden chain connecting youth and the University to forever.

ADMINISTRATION

GOVERNOR

PAUL B. JOHNSON

The Honorable Paul B. Johnson, the newly elected Governor of the State of Mississippi, stands today as a trusted and courageous leader of his people.

Governor Johnson was born in Hattiesburg and is the son of the late Governor Paul B. Johnson. He received his early education in the public schools of Forrest County. His preparatory education was completed at Columbia Military Academy in Columbia, Tennessee. Following his graduation from C.M.A., he became a student at the University of Mississippi. At Ole Miss, he compiled an excellent record in both scholastic and extra-curricular activities. While at Ole Miss, he was tapped into Blue Key Honor Society and ODK Honorary Leadership Fraternity, selected to the Hall of Fame, and served as the President of the Ole Miss student body.

After receiving his Bachelor of Law Degree from the University and being admitted to the Bar in 1940, he began his law practice in both Jackson and Hattiesburg.

In 1959 he was elected Lieutenant Governor. As Lieutenant Governor and President of the Mississippi State Senate, he has compiled a formidable record of accomplishments in the past four years.

Governor Paul B. Johnson has not only demonstrated a thorough familiarity with Mississippi governmental problems, put proved himself to be a decisive, skilled and experienced leader.

Since 1946, Chancellor Williams has led the University through happy times of expansion and discouraging times of tension caused by national problems.

Chancellor Williams is the immediate past President of the National Association of State Universities, and a member of the Commission on Colleges and Universities of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. From 1959 to 1961, Chancellor Williams was President of the State Universities Association and is now a member of its Executive Committee.

He is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, national honorary leadership fraternity; the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi; Kappa Delta Pi and Phi Delta Kappa honorary educational fraternities. Among his other numerous activities, he is a member of the Board of Stewards of the Oxford-University Methodist Church and is a member of the Oxford Rotary Club and the Oxford-Lafayette County Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. John D. Williams has brought greatly increased educational opportunities to the students and increased service to the people of Mississippi. The students of the University are indeed fortunate to have as their Chancellor a man who at all times is a true Southern gentleman.

Fair, Tally D. Riddell, Leon Lowery, M. M. Roberts, H. G. Carpenter, J. N. Lipscomb, and S. R. Evans.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees of Institutions of Higher Learning is composed of twelve members which are appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the State Senate. This group of men is the governing body of the University. The trustees are appointed for terms of twelve years, in groups of four each four years, of whom one is appointed from each Congressional District, one from each of the three Supreme Court Districts and two from the Senate-at-large. There are no ex-officio members. The Board of Trustees selects one of its members as President of the Board and appoints the Chancellor as executive head of the University.

Our modern Cafeteria and new Science Center, along with other expansions of our physical facilities, are only a visible portion of the work done by this group, who give their valuable time to help guide the educational program of our state.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

The College of Liberal Arts, founded in 1848, is the oldest and largest division of the University.

The college offers a broad and complete comprehensive course of study including most areas of knowledge in the humanities and in the physical, biological and social sciences. The broad study program of the College of Liberal Arts assures the student's acquaintance with the fundamentals of scholarship in the main branches of knowledge, and serves as a foundation upon which the student may build in the pursuit of special scholarship in his chosen field.

The College itself has instituted a Scholars Program to provide special instruction for superior students.

Dean A. B. Lewis

SCHOOL OF LAW

The legislature in 1851 established a department of law at the University, which later became the University's School of Law. The three-year program of study offers a thorough grounding in the principles of jurisdiction together with actual practice of legal procedures. By statute in Mississippi, a diploma from the School of Law entitles its graduates to practice in any court in the state without further examination.

The Mississippi Law Journal, a legal periodical, is published four times each year by the Mississippi State Bar and the Law School.

The two leading legal fraternities of the nation, Phi Delta Phi and Phi Alpha Delta, have established chapters on the campus.

The school is accredited both by the Association of American Law Schools and the American Bar Association.

Dean John H. Fox

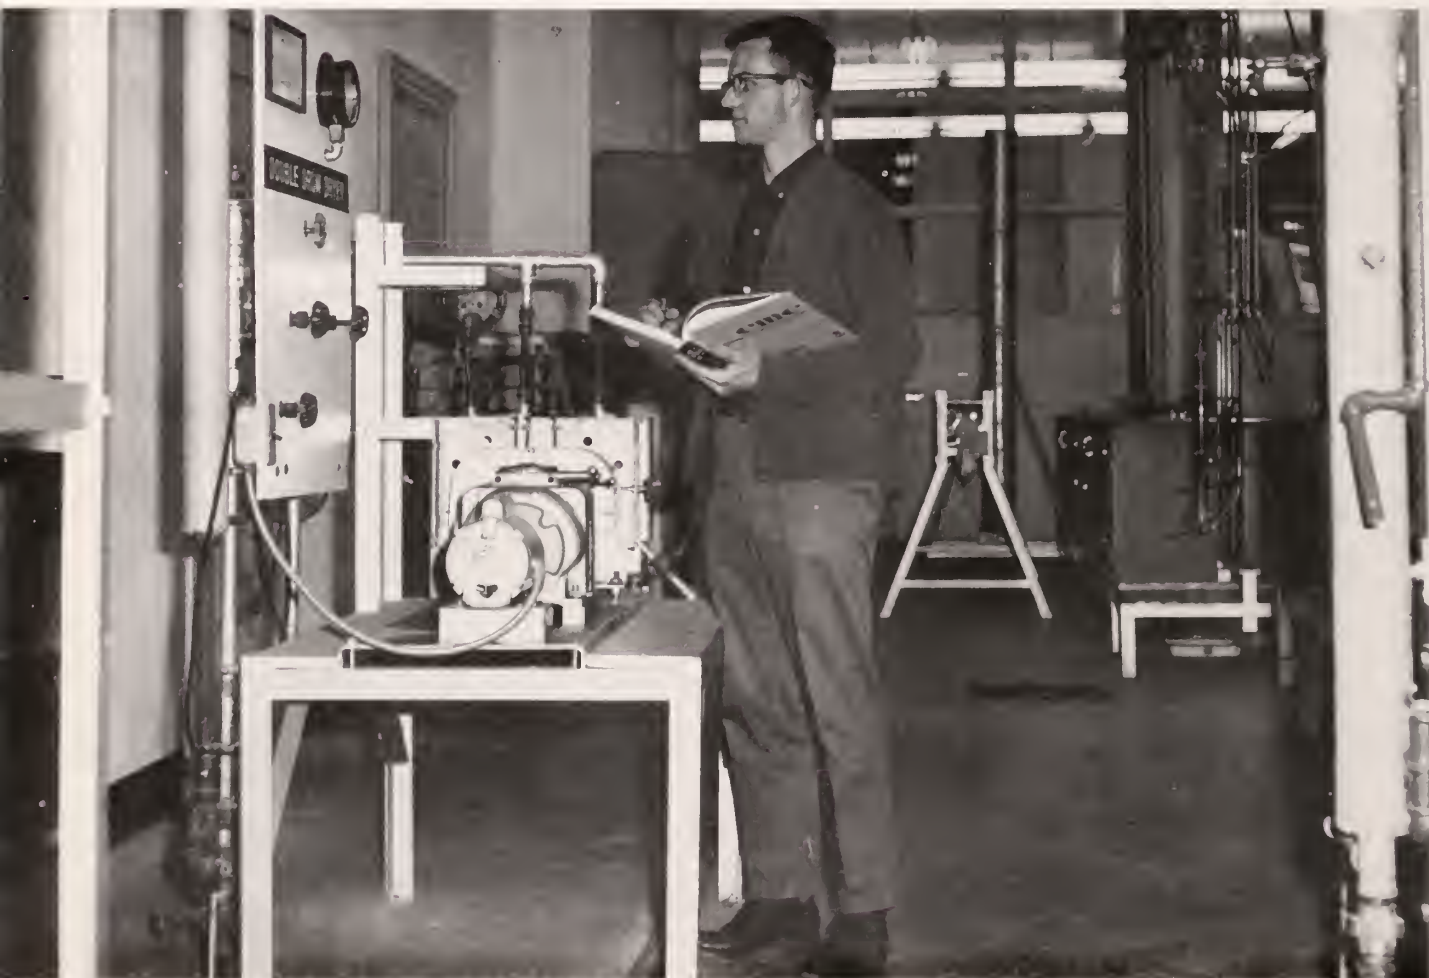

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING

Founded in 1900, the School of Engineering was the third school of the University to be established, and it is the oldest engineering school in the state. Courses in civil engineering have been taught by the University since 1854.

As now organized, this school of professional education offers a program which is planned to serve the State of Mississippi in the five basic engineering fields. The school, housed in Carrier Hall since 1954, contains laboratories and shop facilities for chemical, civil, electrical, geological, and mechanical engineering which accommodate progressive instruction and research.

Dean Frederic H. Kellogg

Dean Sylvester A. Moorehead

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

The functions of the School of Education are the preparation of public school personnel and the improvement of educational programs and facilities. Professional courses offered at both the undergraduate and graduate levels of study provide opportunity for pre-service and in-service teacher education. Departments in Educational Research, Audio-Visual Education, and Counselor Education are maintained by the school as well as a Teacher Placement Bureau in accordance with the desire of the school to keep up to date in all matters pertaining to education.

The University is fully accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education and is a member of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

The School of Medicine has its headquarters in Jackson at the University Medical Center which is composed of the University Hospital and the School of Medicine Building. The Veterans Administration Hospital of Jackson, the Mississippi State Hospital at Whitfield, and the Mississippi State Sanatorium at Sanatorium are affiliated with the Medical School and cooperate in the teaching program. The four-year course leading to the degree of Doctor of Medicine is fully approved by the American Medical Association and the Association of American Medical Colleges.

Dr. W. Alton Bryant

Dean Robert Q. Marston

Dean Charles W. Hartman

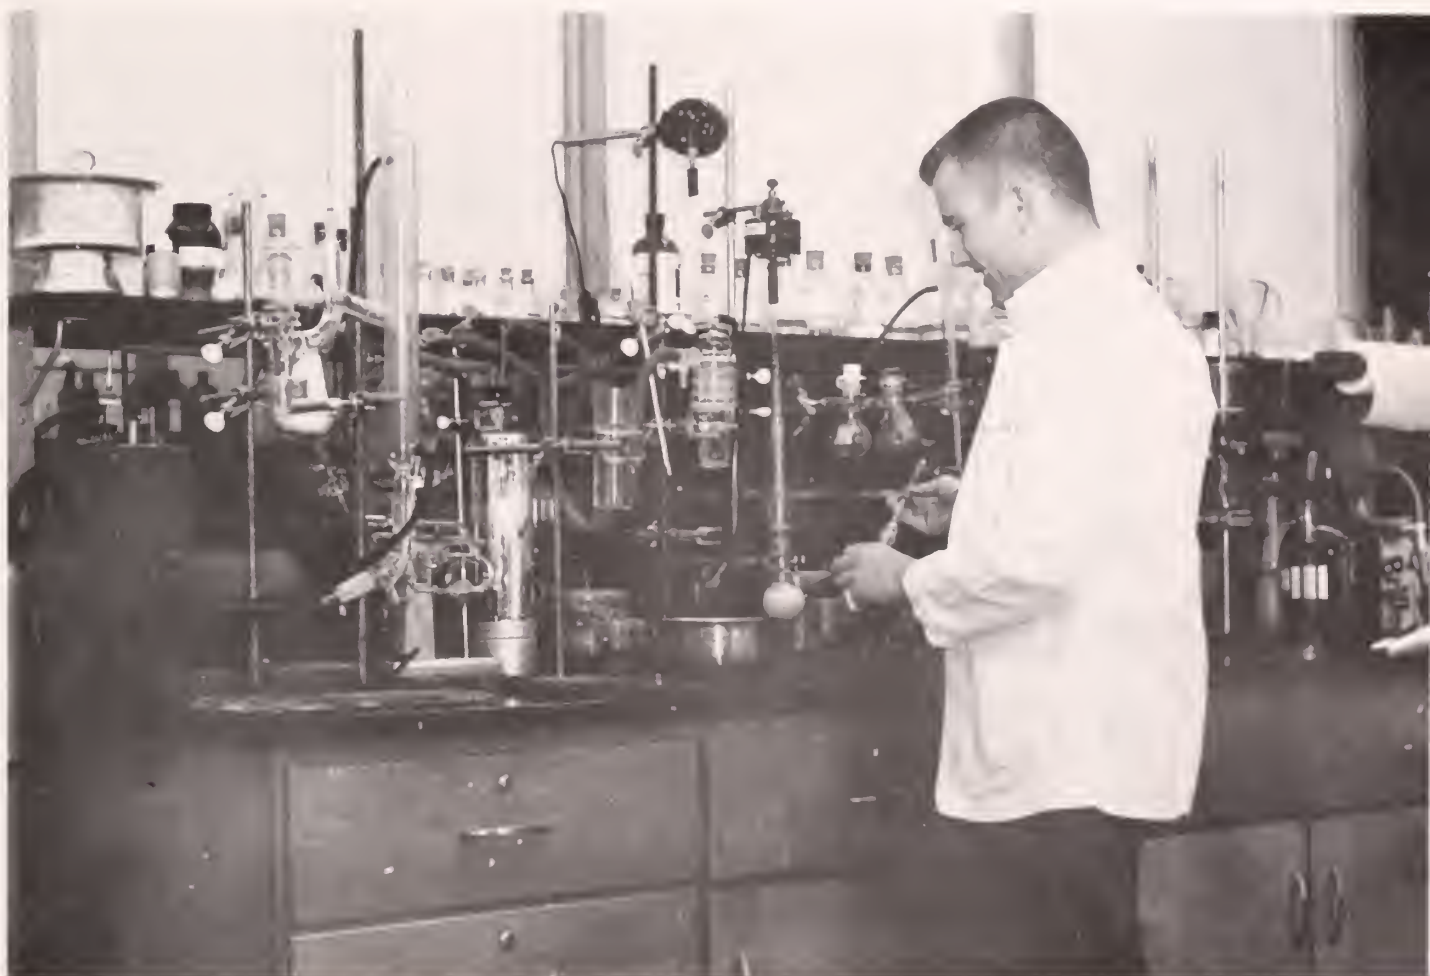

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

The school of Pharmacy was created by the Board of Trustees in 1908. The purpose of the School is to provide thorough instruction for students who desire to acquire the special education and training necessary for the successful practice of pharmacy.

The degree of Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy is conferred on those students who have successfully completed two years of preparatory work, followed by three years of professional pharmacy courses.

The School is a member of the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy, and accredited by the American Council on Pharmaceutical Education.

The School of Pharmacy is located in the new Science Center which was completed this year.

SCHOOL OF COMMERCE

The primary function of the School of Business and Government is to teach students the basic knowledge they will need for an administrative career in business or government and to commence the development of their proficiency in the application of such knowledge. The School occupies Conner Hall, which is designed specifically to meet the needs and growth of the School of Commerce. The School of Business and Government is a member of the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business. The School of Commerce offers four degrees: Bachelor of Business Administration, Bachelor of Public Administration, Bachelor of Science in Commerce, and Bachelor of Science in Journalism.

Dean Lewis Nobles

GRADUATE SCHOOL

Courses at the graduate level were first offered at the University in 1870. The centers of the graduate studies are the Alexander L. B. Bondurant Graduate Building and the University library in which carrels are provided for the special use of each student. These buildings house several special collections and libraries in addition to seminar rooms and auditoriums.

In 1955 the University was authorized to develop doctoral programs in several fields. The Graduate school holds membership in the council of Graduate Schools of the United States and in the Conference of Deans of Southern Graduate Schools.

FEATURES

From these twenty-six, the judges must pick five.

Hopeful contestants observe stage techniques.

Rehearsals go on for hours.

As the big night nears, entrants practice and practice again.

Beauties give beaming smiles to judges during interviews.

The annual features some of the loveliest girls of the land. This year is no exception. Many of these young ladies are widely acclaimed, and have been honored by being selected as the top beauties of 1964.

The OLE MISS also features other outstanding students on campus—Miss Ole Miss, our ideal southern belle; Colonel Rebel, the embodiment of a Southern gentleman; members of the Hall of Fame, Homecoming Queen, Rebelee Queen, and Miss University who represents us in the Miss Mississippi pageant. Also, there are ten favorites who are selected at the Parade of Favorites and Beauties in the fall.

The judges enjoy their talks with contestants.

Favorite nominees parade before a packed audience.

They're playing the waiting game.

This is the moment when glamor is at its best.

Surely it's not that bad, Mr. Alexander!

Hide and seek?

Just grin and bear it. . . .

And then there were ten.

The highest honor that can be bestowed upon an Ole Miss student is to be selected to the Hall of Fame. Members of the Hall of Fame are chosen on the basis of leadership, scholarship, loyalty, spirit, devotion, and service to the University.

The selection is conducted in such a manner as to be entirely free from campus politics. A Selection Committee established by the Campus Senate sends out requests for nominations to the persons holding the twelve most important positions on the campus. Those students nominate twenty-four students to make the actual selection. The twenty-four students who are selected then vote for the six persons on the campus who they feel deserve this great honor. The six stu-

THE ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY

The President of the Associated Student Body this year is Tom Cleveland. It is the duty of the President to see that all phases and laws of the Constitution are carried out and to promote the general welfare of the students.

Vice-President of the ASB is Brad Lawrence, who also serves as President of the Campus Senate. Secretary Jeanine Ogletree records the minutes of the Campus Senate. Dick Todd, the Treasurer, is responsible for all funds disbursed through student activities.

The cabinet consists of the ASB officers and nine members appointed by the President. The members of the cabinet aid the President in his executive duties.

The Student Judicial Council consists of an elected chairman and four members appointed by the ASB president. Champ Terney coordinates the council as chairman this year. The Judicial Council serves as a court to review all legislation passed by the Campus Senate.

BRAD LAWRENCE
Vice-President

One of the outstanding features of the student government at the University of Mississippi is the Campus Senate. This organization is responsible for dealing with student affairs and acting as the medium of the students and the administration. Resolutions and bills brought before the senate are debated, voted upon, and if passed, are presented to the proper authority for approval. The senate approves cabinet appointments that the president of the Associated Student Body makes and sponsors ASB elections.

The vice-president of the student body presides over the senate meetings, which are held every other Tuesday night. Hard work, intelligence, and leadership characterize the senators who are elected to represent each of the Greek fraternities, dormitories, districts of Vet-Village, and the day students.

The Vice-President, Brad Lawrence, and the Secretary, Jeanine Ogletree, of the ASB serve as President and Clerk of the Senate. The President Pro Tem, Buffy Beach, and the Sergeant at Arms, John Fatheree, are elected by the Senate. The Chaplain, Bobbie Straub, and Parliamentarian, Bubba McArthur, are appointed by the president.

Marianna Littlejohn, Secretary Judicial Council; Shirley Payne, Secretary Executive Council; Peggy Savage, Treasurer.

The purpose of the Associated Women Students is to help regulate the activities of the women students. In whole hearted cooperation with the Dean of Women and all administrative officials, the AWS tries to coordinate the activities of its various branches with those of other women student organizations of the ASB. The AWS, composed of every woman student on campus, is a self-governing organization headed by an Executive Council of six officers, elected by popular vote and a Judicial Council composed of one appointed representative from each class.

Each residence hall elects a House Council consisting of a president, secretary, treasurer, and two representatives from each floor. The Judicial Council, is responsible for the enforcement of dormitory and sorority regulations. A Legislative Council, made up of dormitory and sorority house presidents and secretaries, formulates these regulations, subject to the approval of the Dean of Women. The President's Council, composed of the dormitory and sorority house presidents, meets once a week with the AWS President to discuss common problems.

THE 1964

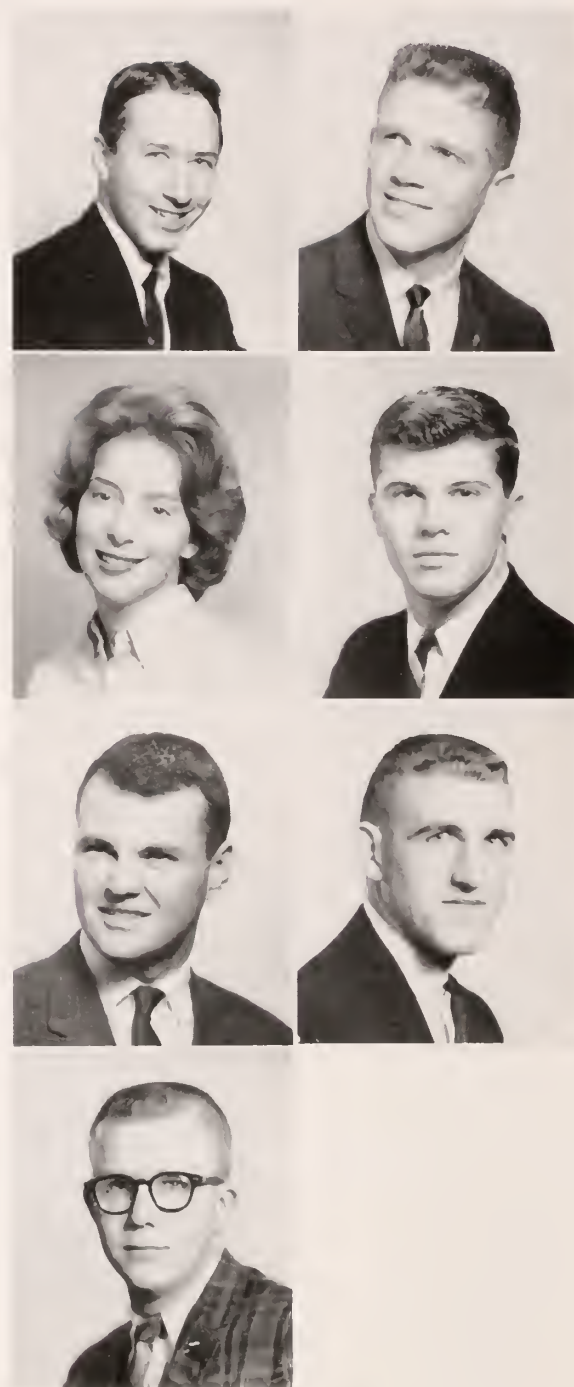

MARTHA HAMILTON
Editor-in-Chief

The editing of the Ole Miss Yearbook is a task which requires much imagination, coordination, and hard work. The position of annual editor is one which should not be taken lightly for only under the direction of a capable leader can the work of such a large organization be carried on.

Martha Hamilton, the first female in twenty-five years to successfully carry out the job of editor of the Ole Miss, has indeed done a fine job in her efforts to give us a bigger and better yearbook. Martha championed the position and managed to emerge sane even after the many hours of frustration. There were deadlines to meet pictures to take, and appointments to make. There was excitement and anticipation at the Parade of Favorites and Beauties. And, finally, there was that feeling of relief when the last section was packed up and sent to the printer.

It has been a wonderful experience for us, as staff members, to watch the steady development of the yearbook. We sincerely hope that this issue will enhance your memory of the year 1963-1964.

The staff members spend hours each day writing, proofreading, and typing to insure the readers of the Mississippian that the facts are up-to-date and interesting. The paper is printed by the students without censorship or control by any group other than its student editorial staff. It is open to any criticism from the public, and through its editorials any individual may voice his opinion.

The Mississippian is indeed important to the students at Ole Miss. It serves not only as a daily account of the events on campus, but also as a memorandum of the school year.

ASB DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AFFAIRS

ELLIS NASSOUR
Chairman ASB Social Affairs

The Department of Social Affairs, headed this year for the second time by Ellis Nassour, is one of the most vital departments in the operation of the ASB. The essential purpose of the department is to provide popular college-level entertainment for Ole Miss students. This year the Concert Committee and Talent Night Committee have officially been made a part of the department.

The Concert Committee sponsors and helps stage the appearances of such stars as Peter Nero, Julie London and other top-ranked entertainers at Ole Miss.

The Movie Committee has been extremely active this year bringing many outstanding productions to Ole Miss. Five of the best European movies were brought to the campus for their Mississippi premiere.

The purpose of the Talent Night Committee is to stage Showboat Night which is for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund. Under the Dance Committee come such activities as the Homecoming Dance, Dixie Week Dance and others.

Entertainment assumes an important place in the lives of the University set, and the committees in the department work hard to get the very best available for all students at Ole Miss.

The Mississippi Law Journal is a legal periodical published four times each year by the Mississippi State Bar, the faculty, and the students.

The Editorial Board and Staff is composed of students in the School of Law chosen by the faculty for scholarship and ability in the field of legal writing. The student notes consist of carefully prepared criticisms of recent important decisions and of exhaustive comments upon selected legal problems.

The Journal contains leading articles on legal topics, state bar proceedings, student notes, and book reviews. A symposium issue, which deals with some phase of Mississippi law, is usually published in August. Mr. Robert K. Rushing serves as faculty advisor for the Journal.

MOOT COURT BOARD

The purpose of the Moot Court program is to give students experience and training in conducting themselves in courts, in actual practice, and in the handling of general office matters. The Moot Court Board, composed of students chosen on the basis of their scholastic record, is appointed by the faculty. It is formulated and conducted to give students experience in following procedural rules as established by law in Mississippi, and to apply substantive law to a given factual situation. Students participate in both trial and appellate work, interviewing clients and witnesses, preparing appellate briefs, and conducting courtroom arguments. Justices in appellate cases consist of one faculty member and two senior law students, and a well-known practicing attorney usually sits as judge in trial cases.

The Chairman of the Moot Court Board is Hassell H. Whitworth and Professor Joel W. Bunkley serves as Faculty Advisor.

The Ole Miss coaching staff, one of the most successful ever assembled, has been a unique feature among coaching organizations. It not only has to its credit its success in carrying out many winning seasons, but also the longevity with which the group has held together at the University. Eight of its eleven members are graduated of the University of Mississippi.

Coach John Howard Vaught, head coach since he began his coaching duties at the University in 1947, has become one of the most successful coaches in the history of collegiate football.

The 1963 Conference Championships make Vaught the coach with most victories in SEC history.

Since Vaught's regime took over in 1947, they have been responsible for bringing about 137 victories, 32 defeats, and nine ties. Vaught's record in the SEC is 75-22-7. The bowl record is 7-4 including four straight Sugar Bowl victories.

Assisting Coach Vaught have been ten well-qualified assistants. Serving with him are Frank M. (Bruiser) Kinard, who is offensive line coach. During his playing days he was an All-American tackle on the 1936-37 squad, All-Pro in 1938-39-40-41-44-46, and an all-time All-American and an All-Southeastern selection. He has been on the staff since 1948.

Other assistants are James E. (Buster) Poole, line coach defensively, Ole Miss 1937; Johnny Cain, offensive backfield coach, Alabama, 1933; John A. (Junie) Hovious, defensive backfield coach, Ole Miss, 1942; J. W. (Wobble) Davidson, assistant coach, Ole Miss 1947; Ray S. Poole, assistant coach Ole Miss 1947; Roland H. Dale, end coach Ole Miss, 1950; Edward S. Crawford, Assistant coach and basketball coach, Ole Miss, 1957; and Billy Mustin, 1950. Thomas K. Swayze, Ole Miss 1933, is contact representative and baseball coach. Wesley (Doc) Knight, Springfield 1935, is athletic trainer. Another Ole Miss graduate, Billy Sanders, class of 1952, is the equipment manager.

Allen Brown makes a spectacular catch although out of bounds.

The Ole Miss Rebels met stiff opposition in New Orleans on New Year's Day from Alabama in the 30th annual mid-winter sports classic as the Crimson Tide defeated the Rebels 12-7.

Arriving in New Orleans in the midst of a record snowfall, the Rebels were a pre-game pick to win another of their post-season games.

The Rebels matched the elements for three periods with a multitude of fumbles and ineffective play up front, but made a tremendous come back in the final period to come close to victory, but not quite.

The defeat was the third for the Rebs in the Sugar Classic against four wins.

Two records were set in the game, one by each side. Alabama's Tim Davis set a new Sugar Bowl record for the most field goals kicked in a single game with the four kicks coming from 31, 46, 22, and 48 yards. Ole Miss's record came in a not-so-noteworthy fashion. The Rebs fumbled the ball eleven times, losing it six.

The loss was the first for Ole Miss since the 1962 Cotton Bowl, but it threw a cloud over their 1963 SEC Championship. Alabama finished third in the final conference standings behind the Rebs and Auburn.

Mike Dennis was the Reb's top ground gainer with 37 yards in seven carries. Dunn had 27 in six and Roberts 12 in 12. In the air Dunn completed eight of 10 passes for 125 yards and Weatherly three of 11 for 46 yards. Dave Wells was the top receiver with 76 in four. Smith had two for thirteen. Dennis had two for 29 while Roberts, Petty and Wilkins all took one.

The Reb line was constantly held in check by a smaller but determined Alabama line and it was not until the closing period that the Reb line looked the part of the champions of the SEC.

A pass from Perry Lee Dunn to Larry Smith that was for five yards and six points in the fourth period climaxed a 74-yard drive that took only nine plays. Billy Carl Irwin added the point and Reb fans were aroused from their disappointment of the game—only to have their hopes shattered when two more fumbles killed their final chance of scoring.

In the closing moments, the score board tells the tale to the Ole Miss fans.

The 1963 University of Mississippi varsity football squad became in September a strong national contender with high pre-season ratings. The stubborn opposition of Memphis State dropped the Rebs from their initially high rating but it was later partially regained after a couple of impressive wins.

As always is the case, Coach Johnny Vaught almost completely rebuilt his team after graduation losses took their usual toll.

The only holdovers of the 1962 "first fifteen" were Perry Lee Dunn and Buck Randall from the full back corps, Reed Davis at end, Bobby Robinson at left guard and Dave Jennings at tail back.

Dunn drew a quick return to quarterback, a position familiar to him in high school and his frosh and sophomore seasons.

From the start to finish, injuries affected virtually every position. Two regulars were forced to withdraw because of their injuries—Dave Jennings and Buck Randall—and did not play the rest of the season after withdrawing early in the season.

Vaught anchored his front wall around senior Reed Davis at right end, Whaley Hall and Cecil Ford at the tackles, and Kenny Dill at center. They were joined by juniors Allen Brown at left end and Robinson at left guard, and Stan Hindman, a sophomore, at right guard.

Allen Brown (80) grabs a short toss.

Host of Rebels halt the Tigers progress.

In the backfield, top Rebs at the start were Dunn, and Jim Weatherly at quarterback, Randall and Fred Roberts at fullback, and wingback. Other key players of the season were Larry Johnson, defensive wingback, Billy Clay at offensive wingback, Jimmy Heidel at quarterback; the last three players all being sophomores.

The varsity squad under the direction of the fine coaching staff finished the season undefeated although surrendering two ties, and played well enough to collect a fifth Southeastern Conference Championship and an "annual" trip to the Sugar Bowl.

September 21, 1963—Coming into their initial game of the 1963 season the Ole Miss Rebels were favored by a least two touchdowns. The Memphis State Tigers pulled together to keep the Rebels scoreless but even then failed to tally any points themselves. The 0-0 deadlock was the first shutout administered to the Rebels since bowing to L.S.U. 0-14 in November of 1958.

The game was a defensive battle all the way. Even with the Rebels having a first down on the seven-yard line of Memphis State, they still could not come up with a score.

Billy Sumrall and Jim Weatherly were the top ground gainers with Perry Lee Dunn completing eight of twelve passes for 93 yards.

September 28, 1963—After being held scoreless the week before, the Ole Miss Rebels rebounded against Kentucky and came up with four touchdown passes to contribute to their 31-7 win in Lexington, Kentucky.

Quarterback Perry Lee Dunn launched three passes for scores with junior Jim Weatherly throwing for the other touchdown. End Billy Carl Irwin contributed seven points himself with a field goal and four conversion kicks.

Though not scoring by land, the Ole Miss running backs piled up 223 well-scattered yards, headed by Freddy Roberts with 36, Weatherly 27, Mike Dennis 22, and Larry Smith 21.

October 5, 1963—The Rebels marched to a neat 20-6 victory over the Houston Cougars.

After a long drive by the Cougars Ole Miss took possession of the ball on the Reb 28 and marched to a touchdown in just 10 plays.

In the second quarter, the Cougars made their lone score. Following a fumble recovery and a pass interference penalty, Houston crossed the goal on a pass from the one yard line.

Ole Miss came out fighting in the second half. Receiving the kickoff, the Rebs marched 50 yards in 10 quick plays and took to the air for the score with a pass play from Dunn to Dennis. Irwin then missed his first conversion of the year.

Following an interception by Heidel, Ole Miss drove into position for a field goal, which missed to the right.

The final score was completed by a flip pass to Dennis, which he carried 22 yards to make the Rebs' third TD.

TULANE 0

Mike Dennis sweeps end against the hapless Tulane defense.

October 19, 1963—The Rebels never gave the Tulane Green Wave a chance in grinding out their 21-0 win. On the second time they gained ball possession, the Rebels rambled 59 yards in six plays with the final payoff a three-yard rollout by Dunn around right end and into the end zone.

Fifty seconds before the half, tackle Cecil Ford blocked a Tulane punt and Ole Miss took over on the Tulane 8. The Rebs tried four running plays but got no closer than the Wave 2.

Returning after the half, with new vigor Ole Miss marched from the kickoff to a touchdown in 8 plays, finishing with a one yard sneak by Dunn over the goal. Billy Carl Erwin converted for all three touchdowns.

Following a series of fumbles and an interception, Ole Miss again gained possession of the ball and Weatherly threw to Dennis for a touchdown on the first play, bringing the score to 21-0, where it remained until the final gun.

October 26, 1963—The Ole Miss Rebels looked the part of S.E.C. Champions at the start of the game but slacked off during the second half in a win over Vanderbilt by a score of 21-7.

Playing before a Homecoming audience of some 21,000, the Rebels started on their victory with a 66-yard touchdown march. Jim Weatherly scored from the one and put the Rebs ahead 7-0. Connecting for the extra point was Billy Carl Irwin.

In the second quarter, Perry Lee Dunn fired a 32-yard pass to Wingback Billy Clay in the end zone to put the Rebs up seven more points, with Irwin again adding the extra point with his kick.

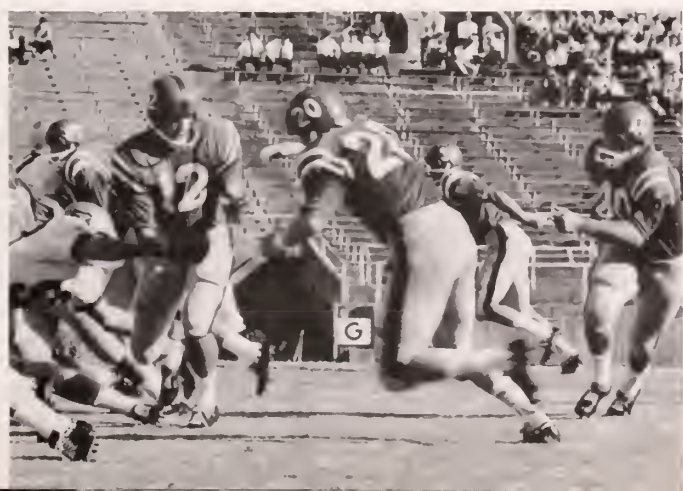

Sophomore Mike Dennis, for the third touchdown, went over from the one yard line after a fine 43 pass-run play from Weatherly to Dennis the previous play.

In the first half, Vandy's deepest penetration was to the Ole Miss 40. They netted one first down in the first half.

After the crowning of Miss Nancy Coursey as 1963 Homecoming Queen, the game progressed on a more even scale with Vanderbilt gaining eight additional first downs to Ole Miss' six and a touchdown. It was the first time the Commodores had scored on the Rebels since 1954.

The Rebels' fourth touchdown came on a 13-yard pass from Perry Lee Dunn to Tailback Billy Sumrall. Irwin again added the extra point.

L. S. U. 3

November 2, 1963—Annually since 1958, Ole Miss and LSU had staged Dixie's "Game of the Year," and 1963 was not to be an exception.

Ole Miss was a four-point favorite, and Ole Miss won—with a shocking score of 37-3 before a national television audience.

From tackle Whaley Hall's blocking of a Bengal quick kick on the first series of scrimmage plays and a 13-yard Reb insert for a 7-0 lead, LSU was seldom a driving factor and was never in control of game developments. It was the fattest Ole Miss point margin in a 52-game series which dates back to 1894.

The outcome was the shocker of the year on the national level, all factors considered. Ole Miss netted 233 yards by land, LSU netted 78. Ole Miss, rarely in need of the pass, totaled 110 yards by air with eight on-target aerials.

Hall turned the first page when he blocked Danny Neumann's punt at the LSU 24 and Reed Davis covered at the 13. Perry Lee Dunn, whose running out of the T-slot was never solved, ran for nine and two yards and FB Freddie Roberts charged across for the first of his three touchdowns.

The score was 20-3 at the half. It was 30-3 after three periods. Rebel third teamers played the final 20 minutes. Not since 1956 and 46-17 had Ole Miss had it so good in Baton Rouge.

Reb scoring advances spanned 13, 72, 32, 33 (field goal), 50 and 49 yards. There was one aerial touchdown, Weatherly throwing to Billy Carl Irwin for 23 yards and the third TD. And Weatherly added the final touchdown with a 3-yard turn of right end.

TAMPA 0

November 9, 1963—Tampa was beaten 41-0 in what several wire services and area journals called a classic mismatch—but regardless of this, Tampa proved to be costly.

Bobby Robinson, the starting left guard, was knocked out for the remainder of the season—Tennessee and Mississippi State. And Perry Lee Dunn, the top hand at quarterback, had his left hand cleated on the opening kickoff and was not to play against Tennessee on offense.

The Rebels led 13-0 after two second-period touchdowns, 20-0 after three chuckers, then 41-0 for the final margin.

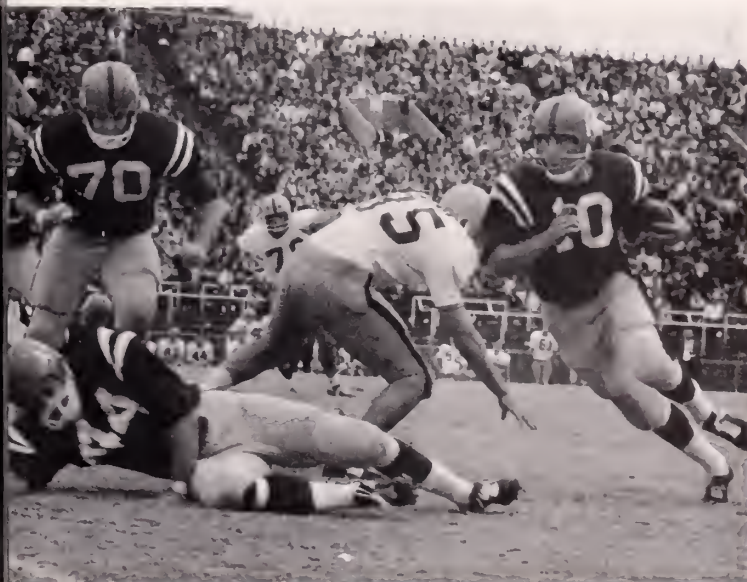

Scoring parades spanned 34, 70, 45, 70, 31, and 39 yards. Touchdowns were registered by, in order: wingback Dave Wells, on a 2-yard pass from Jim Weatherly; tailback Mike Dennis, on a 5-yard pass from Perry Lee Dunn; tailback Billy Sumrall, on an 8-yard pass from Jimmy Heidel, and Wells, on a 7-yard pass from Weatherly. Billy Carl Irwin kicked five of six goals.

Dunn completed 10 of 17 passes for 128 yards. Weatherly completed seven of nine for 73. The yardage bulge was 408 to 78. Seven of the 10 Reb aerial targets handled two catches apiece. Fullback Frank Kinard's 65 yards on 11 carries was high.

TENNESSEE 6

November 16, 1963—Ole Miss struck for a touchdown in each of the first three periods and gave Ole Miss its sixth win of the season 20-0 against the Tennessee Vols.

Jim Weatherly, replacing Dunn at Quarterback for most of the game, passed the Wingback Larry Smith for 33-yards and the games' first touchdown. Billy Carl Irwin added the extra point with his kick.

The second time the Rebels got their hands on the ball, they marched 80 yards in 13 plays from the second touchdown with Fullback Freddy Roberts carrying the ball across on a two-yard plunge.

The Rebs threatened several more times before the half but were unable to score.

The first time in possession of the ball in the third quarter, Jimmy Heidel raced 24 yards on a punt return to the Vol 22 and from there, the Rebels grinded out their third score. Fullback Frank Kinard got the assignment this time and carried for the touchdown from two yards out. The attempt for conversion failed.

Top ground gainer was Mike Dennis with Larry Smith being the top receiver.

The Vols were more spirited than any other faced this year on offense and finished the game with only 15 yards less than that compiled by the Rebs. The Rebels tough defense at the right times kept the Vols from scoring.

The Cinderella team of the Southeastern Conference with great help from a 30 mph wind struggled the Rebels to a 10-10 deadlock in the Magnolia Classic.

Ole Miss, playing at Starkville, scored first and last after leading the Bulldogs 7-0 after a quarter and 7-3 at half. Billy Carl Irwin's fieldgoal locked the game at a standoff with 3 minutes and 10 seconds left in the game. The Rebels had won their sixth Southeastern Conference Championship.

Ole Miss wasn't at full strength with three starters and one first alternate on the sidelines, with the guiding hand at quarterback still a semi-casualty, and with two members of the original backfield benched by injuries.

The hard wind curtailed the Rebel's aerial game, but they were windblown in the beginning and Jim Weatherly took advantage to register the opening TD. He climaxed an 80-yard parade with a pass to Mike Dennis on the State 17. Irwin added the conversion.

Two 5-yard penalties set up State's first down; a push to the Ole Miss 31 gave the second. On the fourth down, Justin Canale booted with the wind, making a 49-yard fieldgoal. With 10:15 left in the third quarter, a Burrell pass to Inman scored and with the conversion, State took the advantage of 10-7. The Rebel drive started 75 yards out. After 17 plays Ole Miss had fourth and goal on State's 3-yard line. At this point, Irwin was sent in to deadlock the game.

From start and finish, Ole Miss aerials were intercepted to set up Bulldog scoring chances. The Rebels denied them their chance every time.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

The Ole Miss Baby Rebels began their intercollegiate action in 1963 by defeating the Vanderbilt freshmen 31-21.

After jumping into a 19-point lead in the first half, the Ole Miss freshmen had to score a pair of touchdowns in a wild fourth period to stay ahead of a determined crew of Vanderbilt frosh.

Quarterback Joe Graves, offensive ace for the Rebs, opened the scoring parade in the first period by tossing a 21-yard touchdown pass to End Hugh Potts with End Jimmy Keyes adding the lone Rebel extra point of the game after the score.

Late in the first period Graves rolled out around end to pick up the second score of the day. Charles Strong took the ball over for the Rebs in the Second period to give a 19-0 margin.

Vanderbilt scored in the latter part of the second period with neither team being able to score in the third.

In the fourth quarter both teams got a pair of touchdowns apiece, giving the Rebs a 31-21 victory.

The Mississippi freshmen extended their wins to two straight following a 24-13 victory over the Louisiana State freshmen in Oxford.

The Baby Rebels scored once in the air and twice on short plunges. End Jimmy Keyes connected for three extra points and a 33-yard field goal.

Fullback Gary Randall bulled his way four yards for the Rebs' first score early in the first period. Minutes later, Doug Cunningham crossed the goal line from eight yards out to give the Rebels a 14-0 first-quarter advantage.

Louisiana State added a score in the second quarter with the Rebs countering with another score, this time on a 12-yard pass from quarterback Joe Graves to End Buntin Frame.

Louisiana State added their second score minutes before the half, but shortly thereafter Jimmy Keyes kicked a 33-yard field goal to give the Rebs a game-winning 24-13 advantage.

After leading 16-0 at the half, the Reb frosh lost to the Alabama freshmen in Tuscaloosa 17-16.

The Reb scores came on a touchdown pass from Joe Graves to James McCraney and Jimmy Teyes added a field goal and an extra point to the cause. Another Graves to McCraney pass brought about the other Reb score just as the half ended.

In the Rebel frosh's final game of the season, they defeated arch-rival Mississippi State 23-15 at Hemingway Stadium.

Sparked by the running and passing of quarterback Joe Graves and the all-round performance of tailback Doug Cunningham, the Baby Rebs overcame an early 7-6 deficit and stormed to their third win against one set.

Graves scored two touchdowns and passed for a third while end Jimmy Keyes provided a field goal for the Reb scoring.

Director Lyle Babcock, assistant director Maynard Sell, Drum Major Tim Shaw, and student director Walter Johnson led the marching band to a successful season of performances and half-time shows. This group of approximately one hundred marching Rebels appeared on national television twice this year—at the Ole Miss—L.S.U. game and at the Sugar Bowl game. For the L.S.U. game, the band depicted the “Era of Casey Jones” with a railroad show presentation using various props. The band portrayed the “Era of Jazz” in the Sugar Bowl game playing an assortment of music ranging from Dixieland to the Charleston.

A parade is not complete without a band. So the Ole Miss band added luster and spirit to the Ole Miss student body as it lead hundreds of yelling Rebels to the town square in the Welcome Rebel Parade. During the year they marched in the Christmas parade in Oxford. The band so closed the season by leading the Inaugural Parade in Jackson.

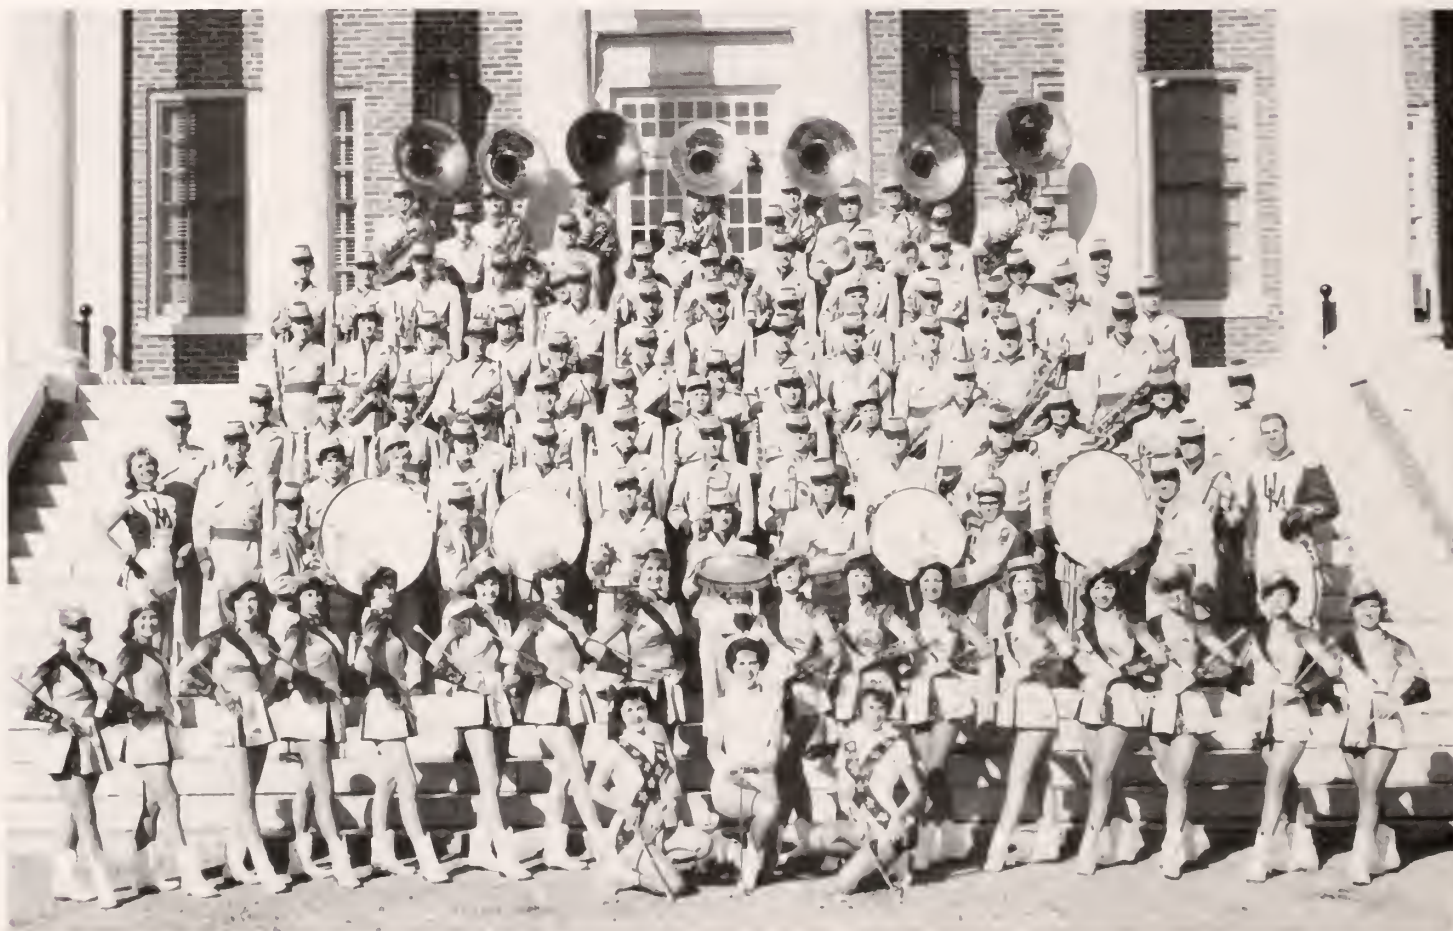

During April's concert season approximately 75 students performed for the concert in Fulton Chapel. The officers of concert band are Jimmy Rodchester, president; Watt Bryan, vice-president; John Jones; Kitty Skeen, and Eddie Beeman, councilmen. Robert Wilkins served as equipment manager and Jane Hammond and John Jones were librarians.

THE REBELETTES

The famous Ole Miss Rebelettes had another outstanding season this year. Such statistics as 196 trophies and 431 medals, not to speak of the 67 beauty titles and 10 twirling titles, and numerous campus activities are proof of the fame the Rebelettes have acclaimed this year.

The Rebelettes added color to the half time shows in their red sequin uniforms, as well as tradition with frequent appearances in their gray Confederate uniforms.

On trips you can't mistake the Rebelettes who are uniquely dressed in white blazers and black shirts and heels.

The group has accompanied the band at all the football games this year. They have appeared at pep rallies, and on television at the Mississippi gubernatorial inauguration, the Sugar Bowl, and the L.S.U. football game. Their names and pictures have appeared in newspaper articles across the country as well.

Choreography for the group was done by head Rebelette and assistant drum majorette, Fancine Fairchild. The feature twirlers also are an added attraction to the band.

The Rebel Band feature twirlers—Jeannell Furr, Carol Conklin, and Ginny Alexander.

The Ole Miss cheerleaders lead the Rebels on to the field toward victory.

The chief spirit promoters on the University campus are the Ole Miss cheerleaders. This group is composed of eight people who are elected by the student body to serve during the coming year.

During the year, the cheerleaders appear at each football game in which the Rebels play, conduct pep rallies, cheer at basketball games, and generally keep up the traditional Rebel spirit. The varsity cheerleaders are Marshall Bennett, head cheerleader, Tony Thaxton, Dick Marchbanks, Bubba McArthur, Marjorie Moore, Diane Klyce, Sally Kate Winters, and Winn Skipper.

Assisting the varsity cheerleaders are the freshman cheering team selected by the freshman class. Jere Gibert, Patsy Puckett, Lassie Cook, Jean Kinard, Bill Yoste, Bill Raines, and Ernest White performed their duties by giving a cheer or two at the various games and rallies.

The untiring devotion of these two groups to the "fight to fame" call of the Rebels in leading ardent fans helped to put Ole Miss again among the top ten teams in the nation.

BASKETBALL

The University of Mississippi's 1963-64 basketball team capped off its best season in the last four years by downing archrival Mississippi State for the second time this season by a score of 77-75. The Rebels had previously defeated the Maroons 77-75 in their earlier encounter this season.

The Rebels' win was enough to earn them a 7-7 break-even report in the SEC and give them seventh place in the final standings. This season was the first time that the Rebels had beaten State on their home court since 1955 and it was the first time since 1952 that the Rebels had taken both games of the two-game series.

The Rebels won four of their last five games, defeating Georgia 81-72, Florida 97-91, and Tulane 63-62, then losing to football rival L.S.U. 86-80.

Two-time All-SEC guard Donnie Kessinger's 23 points against the Maroons sent his seasonal total in 22 games to 516 points, his third straight "500" campaign for a new varsity record. Donnie finished his collegiate career with the distinction of again being named to the UPI and AP All-SEC first team. He was also named to the District 3A All-American Team. Among the numerous records that Donnie Kessinger broke are included Joe Gibbions' all-time scoring record, most field goals, the most games played, and he was the first Rebel ever to have three 300 point totals in SEC competition. Donnie Kessinger has also earned the undying admiration and respect of the students at Ole Miss.

Center Ron Davidson finished out his collegiate career with a 21-point night to finish the season with a 14.9 point average. He also led the team in rebounds with an average of 8.7 a game.

Sophomores were counted on heavily during the season with four of the eight having drawn starting berths. Guard Glenn Lusk was the third-highest scorer with a 13.5 point average. Other players were Jack Steinhart, who scored 65 points in his last four games, Guard Eddie Dunn, Bob Kreilien, injured during the season, Jim Bobe, Micky Williams, John Partridge, Fred Stanley, Spencer Schreiter, and Charles Huffstatler.

Over-all, Ole Miss's 22-game report was 10-12. There was one overtime victory, a 59-58 decision over Auburn, and one overtime loss to Centenary 82-79 in the Gulf South tournament in Shreveport.

Although the team did not win the conference championship, it did have a break-even record which is an improvement over past seasons.

The building of the new Coliseum is expected to bring increased emphasis on basketball and, consequently, the outlook is certainly bright for the future.

BASEBALL

Coach Swayze keeps a watchful eye over his charges.

Although Mississippi's Johnny Rebs dropped their final baseball series and thereby the 1963 Southeastern Conference title, they emerged with one of the spring season's coveted Championships.

Coach Tom Swayze's Rebels vaulted from 1962's fourth-place niche in capturing the SEC's Western Division pennant, their fifth since 1954.

Aside from the championship years of 1960 (12-2), 1959 (10-3), and 1956 (13-3) and 1955's flashy (10-3) returns, the 11-4, regular-season record topped every report compiled in post-war Conference action.

Over-all, the 18-5 tab was shaded only by the 1960 (20-3) and 1955 (16-3) teams, and was even with 1956 (18-5) results.

The Rebs were beaten by Eastern Champion Auburn in the three-game championship series, 7-6 on their own diamond, and 4-7 and 2-6 at Auburn. They thereby lost out in a bid for their third over-all SEC crown, after winning in 1959 and 1960.

Tommy Keyes prepares to tag an Auburn runner.

Kessinger beats out another throw for a single.

The 7-6 triumph over the Tigers extended Ole Miss' SEC playoff string to five consecutive victories. The 5-4 win posted over LSU here April 20 was Coach Swayze's 200th since 1951, his first as Rebel head coach. His over-all coaching record was extended to 204-98 (.676) for all games played; 192-88 (.685) for all regular-season results, and 118-67 (.638) in scheduled Conference results.

The Rebs compiled one of their best campaign reports despite the fact six of a dozen mainstays—infielders, outfielders and catchers—were sophomores and four were juniors. And four of even front-line pitchere were sophomores.

As a first baseman, Sophomore Tommy Keyes of Laurel set a new school record when he hit eight triples, tops inside the SEC for the season. As a pitcher he went 3-0, Was All-Southeastern. He hit .309 for the regular season, had five home runs and five doubles.

All-Southeastern at shortstop for the second straight spring, Donnie Kessinger led the club in hitting with .371, in stolen bases with 15, and was a defensive whiz. He was a member of the NCAA District III all-star team as a sophomore.

In addition to Kessinger and Keyes on the over-all All-Conference lineup, third baseman Dave Jennings, a sophomore, and left fielder Fred Roberts, a junior, claimed Western Division All-SEC berths.

Outfielders Dennis Huffman and Roberts led in home runs with six each; Roberts collected seven doubles, outfielder Frank Lambert and Keyes had five apiece and Kessinger four. Kessinger had two triples, as did Lambert.

Keyes leaps high in the air to prevent a pass ball.

"Hey, you're not supposed to hit a man with glasses on!"

TENNIS TEAM

The Ole Miss tennis team played in sixteen matches and two tournaments during the 1963 season. The overall record was 9-7 against a 1-6 report with the SEC.

The tennis team tied for second place at the Mississippi Intercollegiate Tourney in Jackson. In Conference results, it scored 9-0 over Auburn and dropped decisions to Alabama 0-9 and 1-8; Miss. State 1-8 and 1-8; Vanderbilt 3-6; and LSU 4-5.

The Rebs gained victories over Illinois Wesleyan 4-3; Howard College 5-4; Memphis State 8-1, 6-3; Southwestern 7-2, 8-1; and Miss. College 8-1, 7-2.

Tennis lettermen were Sydney Smith of Jackson; John (Rik) Billings of Wauwatosa, Wisc., Fred Sandifer of Greenwood, Jerry Mason of Meridian, Joe Salloum of Gulfport, Ferrell Varner of Memphis, Ernest Lipscomb of Vicksburg, and Harvey Smallwood of Laurel.

GOLF

The Ole Miss golf team posted a 5-3 matchplay record. The Rebels were 3-1 against Southeastern Conference opposition.

Mississippi State in two 16½-10½ decisions and LSU by 16-11 were beaten in Conference golf encounters. Vanderbilt scored a 19½-7½ victory in Nashville. Memphis State was the only dual conquerer at 20-7 and 19½-7½.

Van Lee, from Bastrop, La., won the 1963 Mississippi Intercollegiate title with Dave Nichols the runnerup. In team scoring the Rebs finished second by a stroke.

Golf lettermen were Jimmy Hoppen of Bogalusa, La., Charles Graeber of Yazoo City; Jimmy Whitten of Columbus; Robert Genin of Bay St. Louis; Nichols and Lee.

OLE MISS M CLUB

The Ole Miss "M" Club of the University of Mississippi is composed of those men who have participated and lettered in one of the intercollegiate sports at the University. The sports in which a participant may receive a letter are football, basketball, baseball, track, and tennis.

Only the members of the "M" Club are qualified to wear the Ole Miss "M", which distinguishes these men as winners of the athletic award.

The purpose of the club is to promote sports and sportsmanship at the University. Its members assist in the recruiting of high-school athletes for the University.

The "M" Club's big project is the handling of the Spring football intra-squad game held each year in March.

Another phase of the club's activities are the social events its sponsors during the year. Their main social event is the annual Christmas party.

The Fraternity Intramural Council plans and directs all the intramural activities in which the social fraternities participate. The council is made up of two members from each of the sixteen social fraternities on campus. Among the duties of the Council are arranging schedules, compiling of results, determining of eligibility of athletes, and interpretation of rules of all sports involved.

The fraternity athletic season begins during the fall semester with touch football, which is probably the most hotly contested sport of all. During the remainder of the year the Greeks go out for basketball, bowling, softball, tennis, table tennis, and other sports.

The fraternities are divided into two leagues for competition in team sports, then the league champions meet in a game to determine the over-all championship of that sport. Points are given for each victory in a major sport—basketball, football, softball and for each over-all championship in a minor sport. At the end of the year the points are tabulated and the intramural championship trophy is awarded to the fraternity with the highest number of points.

The Alumni House was financed by contributions of the alumni of the University of Mississippi and a revenue bond issue which was presented to the University on October 20, 1951. It was dedicated to the memory of those alumni and former students who gave their lives in the wars of their country. With the adjoining Mississippi Center for Continuation Study it has become a part of one of the most complete centers for adult education in the South.

Each fall during the football season the Alumni House becomes a center of activity as former University of Mississippi students from all over the nation pour into Oxford to renew old friendships and cheer for the Rebel football team.

New officers of the Alumni Association are installed each year at the annual Homecoming football game.

Omicron Delta Kappa was founded at Washington and Lee University in the fall of 1914. It came to the Ole Miss campus in February of 1936 and had since become the outstanding honorary organization for men at the University.

In order for a man to be considered for membership in Omicron Delta Kappa, he must have a total of 20 or more points. A man receives points for the following five activities: Scholarship, Athletics, Student Government, Publications and Speech, Music and Dramatic Arts. Omicron Delta Kappa also restricts its membership to only two per cent of the male student body.

Although Omicron Delta Kappa is primarily an honorary organization, it performs many services to the University and its students. The principal project is the forum series, sponsored in conjunction with Mortar Board, which brings nationally and internationally known figures to the campus to speak on pertinent topics.

Mortar Board, a national honor society for senior women, was founded at Cornell University on February 16, 1919, when four local honor sororities banded together with the purpose of promoting University loyalty, advancing the spirit of fellowship and service in University women, maintaining and encouraging leadership, and stimulating and developing the finest type of college women.

At Ole Miss, Mortar Board continually maintains the high ideals set forth by its founders. Each spring, Mortar Board re-evaluates these ideals. Then, on Honor Day in Fulton Chapel, it taps new members accordingly.

Throughout the year, Mortar Board joins with Omicron Delta Kappa in sponsoring the Omicron Delta Kappa-Mortar Board Forums. The forums bring to the University campus famous people who speak on pertinent subjects.

The purposes of the University Players of the University of Mississippi are "to perform as the working organization of the University Theatre, assisting the theater staff in all practical ways in the productions of the theater; to foster those activities which will lead to a greater understanding and appreciation of theater and its rewards; and to encourage varied participation on the part of its members in the theatrical activities of the University."

Among the productions contributed to by players in 1963 were Take Her, She's Mine; Imaginary Invalid, Kiss Me Kate; The Caretakers; No Exit; The Sleep of Prisoners; Waiting for Godeaux.

Prayers work in every phase of production. They borrow, buy, rent, and keep up with costumes, properties, and furniture. They study outside of class to be able to apply make-up and create sound effects; they publicize productions, build and paint sets, and of course they act in the plays. Worthy credit has been given to this organization by a Mississippi play critic who has recently said that the best theatre in Mississippi at this time is found at its senior university.

Ole Miss has many organizations of a religious nature for her student body. Among the largest is the Wesley Foundation, an organization for students who have the Methodist religion as a preference.

The aim of the Wesley Foundation is to foster the social, moral, and spiritual needs of students by trying to create a greater personal relationship with God; and to strengthen ties with the church, made in youth, which assure full Christian maturity.

Activities of the Wesley Foundation include discussion groups, studies, worship, fellowship and recreation. On Sundays, students have many different types of religious activities at their disposal. Monday through Friday from 5 to 5:20 p.m. the group an evening prayer service on the third floor of the "Y" building. The objectives of the society are to encourage excellence in pre-medical work by furnishing a goal toward which the student may strive during the early semesters of his or her pre-medical career; to bind together similarly interested students; and to bridge the gap between the spirit of the pre-medical school and that of the School of Medicine.

Alpha Phi Omega was established at the University of Mississippi on May 2, 1948. To be eligible for membership, a student must have affiliated with the Boy Scouts sometime during his life.

The purpose of Alpha Phi Omega is manifested on the Ole Miss campus in various ways. The members serve as ushers at many social events, sponsor rifle matches for high school students, and operate the University Book Exchange jointly with the Pi Beta Phi Sorority.

Alpha Phi Omega is also very active during Rebelle as it is responsible for "The Ugliest Man on Campus" contest. The students are charged a penny vote and the money goes to various service projects for the Oxford Community.

$\Delta\Sigma\Sigma$ was founded three years ago by Douglas Bazinsky Lewis so that he too could feel that he belonged to something. From this meager beginning, Doug has gathered around him some of the biggest and smartest $\Delta\Sigma\Sigma$'s that have ever attended Ole Miss.

The organization achieved such a powerful status that it was almost successful in winning the position of Rebelee Queen for one of its members.

$\Delta\Sigma\Sigma$ has suffered only one major set-back during its short existence—in fact, it was a complete disaster. It all happened when a 69 cents a plate testimonial dinner was planned for the biggest $\Delta\Sigma\Sigma$ of them all—Tom Hines. However, only two $\Delta\Sigma\Sigma$'s showed up. They were none other than Tom Hines and the Great Bazinsky himself. The general feeling for the flop was that the members would have rather paid 69 cents to honor an amateur $\Delta\Sigma\Sigma$ instead of a professional.

Student chapters of the American Society of Civil Engineers provide the opportunity for the beginnings of professional associations. All students in the Department of Civil Engineering are welcome to attend some of the meetings, but membership is open only to juniors and seniors in the department. Membership in the chapter assures that contacts can be made with the technical and professional progress of civil engineering and with the leaders who are responsible for such progress. Also very important, membership offers the chance to take part in the constructive activities carried on by future leaders of the profession. The American Society of Civil Engineers student chapter supplements regular class meetings and laboratory work and is the only agency that can relate the professional development of the students.

Spiritual growth on the campus, along with mental and cultural developments through church-related programs and activities, is offered by the Baptist Student Union. The BSU serves as a connecting link between the campus and the church for Baptist students and for those of Baptist preference.

The BSU Councils are elected annually by members of the organization. It is the responsibility of the council to contact and enlist Baptist students who would be interested in participating in the program of the BSU. It is also the Council's duty to coordinate the Baptist program with that of other campus religious organizations.

Each year the Ole Miss BSU sends a delegation to the State BSU Convention. It sponsors short devotionals each week day at noon which are conducted by the students themselves. Prayer dates are considered an important part of the BSU. Various mission projects are also undertaken by this group. All of these projects are open to Christian students of all denominations.

The Ole Miss chapter of Beta Gamma Sigma was chartered in 1944. This national scholastic honor society is for men and women in the schools of commerce and business administration. To be eligible for membership, seniors must be in the upper 10% of their class and have an over-all grade-point of 3.2. Second-semester juniors with exceptionally high scholastic standing are also eligible.

The purpose of Beta Gamma Sigma is to encourage high scholarship and to foster high ideals in business. Chapters of this honor society are established only in institutions which are members of the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business.

In 1927 the Cardinal Club was organized as a sophomore service organization. The primary purpose of the club at that time was to entertain visiting athletic teams. The club served as a welcoming committee for the athletic department here at Ole Miss. Since then the Cardinal Club has become infamous as a freshman disciplinary committee. Freshmen are orientated with the traditional freshman haircut which is sponsored by this group. Each year the Cardinal Club sponsors the building of a giant bonfire the night before the Homecoming game. The main purpose of the club now is to instill in the freshmen students enthusiastic spirit and love for Ole Miss. The club sponsors freshman roll call to ensure the freshmen attendance at all pep rallies and like functions.

The membership of the club is composed of one representative from each fraternity and two from the student body at large. The president is elected from the preceding year's Cardinal Club. He is a member of the junior class who has shown particular enthusiasm in the Cardinal Club during his sophomore year. The president plans the activities for the year with the help of the other officers. School spirit and freshman orientation are greatly fostered by this organization. The Cardinal Club group are the most enthusiastic school-spirit boosters, and members can be easily recognized at pep rallies and other functions by their Ole Miss sweaters.

The Religious Emphasis program at Ole Miss is sponsored by the Committee of One Hundred—a cross section of the University community. This group of students, staff, faculty, directors and chaplains of student religious groups, and Oxford ministers sponsors a series of Religious Emphasis Speakers throughout the year. Through meetings in fraternity and sorority houses, classrooms, as well as in convocations and other areas on the campus, students are given the opportunity of hearing these leaders in the field of religion.

With the aid of student leaders and the interest of faculty members, the Committee has accomplished many of the great ends it desires. Ole Miss is greatly indebted to the persons who strive to give us a wider view of religious opinions through the year.

CWENS is a National Honorary Organization for Sophomore women of which Mississippi Iota Chapter is a part. At the time of the National CWENS Convention in September of 1963, which was attended by two Iota Chapter delegates, there were 135 chapters.

The purpose of CWENS is to promote scholarship and leadership among the coeds and to render service to the University. To qualify for membership a girl must have been outstanding in leadership in campus activities as well as proficient in her studies her freshman year. Only ten per cent of all freshman women who have attained a 3.00 grade average are selected each year to wear the insignia of CWENS.

CWENS try to develop cultural interest by entertaining guest speakers at their weekly meeting. This year they served Ole Miss by ushering at all Committee of 100—sponsored convocations.

Delta Sigma Pi is the second-largest professional fraternity in the United States. It was founded at New York University School of Commerce, Accounts and Finance, on November 7, 1907. Alpha Phi Chapter was established at the University of Mississippi in 1927. Membership is limited to men in the School of Commerce and Business Administration who meet the necessary scholastic requirements and unanimously pass the chapter.

Delta Sigma Pi sponsors tours of leading industries, conducts programs with prominent speakers from the business world, and promotes discussions and films about important topics of interest to commerce students.

The primary duty of the Elections Commission is administration of all general campus elections. It is composed of twenty-five members appointed by the ASB President and confirmed by the Campus Senate. Unlike those of other ASB departments, appointments to the Elections Commission are permanent, and members serve until graduation or resignation. The Elections Commission was responsible for installing the present IBM system of voting which has subsequently been adopted by Mississippi State University and the University of Southern Mississippi. Other Elections Commission activities include conducting voting on constitutional amendments and the Parade of Favorites, and administering student surveys on matters of importance to the ASB.

Epsilon Gamma Epsilon emphasizes four phases of activity—the professional, the fraternal, the honorary, and the social. Its chief purpose is to promote the ideals and concepts of higher education in office administration which will contribute to the preparation of men and women for office occupations and for teaching in the field of business education.

Membership in the organization is based on character, leadership, and scholarship. It is limited to students enrolled in the department of Office Administration and Business Education who are specializing in secretarial science, office management, and business education.

Men and women in office administration may become affiliated with Epsilon Gamma Epsilon. This honorary organization was founded at the University of Mississippi in 1951. It is incorporated in Mississippi and became a national organization two years ago.

The activities of the fraternity enable its members to become acquainted with leaders in the fields of business and business education and to become aware of current developments, standards, practices, and routines of business.

The Financiers was organized in the spring of 1959 on the Ole Miss campus. The organization is composed of those students majoring in the field of Banking and Finance. The club is sponsored by the University of Mississippi Chair of Banking, under the direction of Dr. Ben B. McNew, and the Mississippi Bankers Association.

The purposes of the Financiers are to bring together students of banking and finance for a closer fellowship and the interchange of ideas, to foster a better understanding of the responsibilities of financial institutions to the local and national economics, of the duties and responsibilities of financial executives, and to afford the banking and finance students an opportunity to meet and hear individuals who are successful in the various financial fields.

Various leading Mississippi bankers have spoken to the group on the different specialized functions of banking activities during the past year. The public is cordially invited to attend and participate in all discussions.

The Mississippi Home Economics Association and the American Home Economics Association are affiliated with the University of Mississippi Home Economics Club. The club was founded on the university campus in 1938. The purpose of this organization is to bring members together and inform them of the opportunities in the field of home economics, and to promote clean, healthful homemaking.

Students majoring in Home Economics may join the Home Economics Club. It enables them to learn what other members are accomplishing in Mississippi and in the United States in this field. The club offers great opportunities for those who are interested in learning the modern techniques of Home Economics.

A national program is set up at the beginning of each year. The points of this program are sent to the various clubs throughout the United States. At the Home Economics meetings, held each third Tuesday of each month, the members work to carry out these points and to obtain the high standards which are set up by the club here at Ole Miss.

In the spring of 1959 the Electrical Engineering Student Society was organized on the Ole Miss campus. Membership includes all electrical engineering majors and all students who are majoring in related fields.

The purpose of the society is to advance the theory and practice of electrical engineering and its allied fields. The organization attempts to assemble students with common interests while striving to instill pride in the fields of electricity and electronics. Monthly meetings are held for the reading and open discussion of professional publications, technical films, and other matters which are appropriate for an organization interested in subjects of such a technical nature.

In the past year, the Electrical Engineering Student Society has become associated with the Institute of Radio Engineers. This has enabled the society to become more closely associated with other organizations of this type, since the School of Electrical Engineering is accredited by the national organization.

The first national Greek letter pharmaceutical fraternity to be founded was Kappa Psi. The founding took place on December 5, 1879, at the College of Virginia. Later a chapter was established on the campus of the University of Mississippi and remained active until around 1930, when it went inactive. Some seventeen years later in May, 1947, the Beta Rho Chapter of Kappa Psi was reactivated. Since that time, its prestige has grown steadily on the Ole Miss campus as pharmacy students have realized its importance in their professional outlook.

The men of Kappa Psi are chosen in recognition of their scholastic standing, general ability, character, personality, and activities. Members of this organization have been recognized as outstanding students at the university. They must strive to exert their utmost efforts to preserve and further the high ideals which are always displayed by the pharmaceutical profession.

The Megaphone Club is composed of a member from each of the ten sororities and two independents. The members are elected by their respective sorority or dormitory. Each member is required to be a sophomore, with the exception of the president who is a junior. The officers of the Megaphone Club are elected by the members of the club.

The purpose of the Megaphone Club is to foster school spirit at every activity held on the Ole Miss campus. The club members encourage attendance at pep rallies, football and basketball games. A.S.B. dances, and other school sponsored affairs. In order to promote attendance at these school activities, posters and handbills are distributed on the campus. School spirit has been encouraged by various methods such as the selling of pom-pom sticks at football games and the distribution of horns at games. Red ribbons were supplied to freshman girls which they were required to wear in their hair during the first week of school. In addition, an L.S.U. Tiger and a Mississippi State Bulldog were built and burned at the pep rallies.

The Megaphone Club works hand in hand with the Cardinal Club, a men's sophomore service club. Together, the two clubs sponsored the annual Welcome Rebel party, and other similar activities.

This year for the first time, the Megaphone Club selected one freshman girl from each of the ten sororities. They served as pledges of the club and will take over as regular members next year.

In 1961, the Ole Miss Sport Judo Club was founded on the University campus. The purpose of this organization is to promote good sportsmanship on the campus and to better the inter-collegiate relationships through participation in Sport Judo.

The club takes many trips to schools with similar organizations to compete in Judo. The students on the Ole Miss campus who are interested in Judo can become acquainted with the different techniques used by other Judo enthusiasts by engaging in friendly competition with these schools.

The Ole Miss Judo Sport Club has met in contest with the University of Kentucky, Louisiana State University, Ohio State and the University of Louisville.

Although the Judo Club is a relatively new organization on the campus, the students have shown much enthusiasm over the club. A great deal of excitement is created as the Judo Club begins another year of competition.

The Ole Miss Y (YMCA-YWCA) is a nondenominational lay Christian organization with voluntary membership which is open to all students. Members of the faculty and staff cooperate with students in their endeavor to develop a program of Christian fellowship which offers free time activities and other services to aid members and participates in meeting needs and problems and in developing significant cultural, vocational, intellectual, social, and recreational interests. The program is under the leadership of the Y Cabinet.

The Y Building houses the offices of the staff, student church directors, and Y officers. The building has conference and social rooms and a large lobby with recreational facilities. Reservations for meetings in conference and social rooms are scheduled in the Y office.

The Y Program is supported through voluntary contributions during the annual Y Finance Drive from students, faculty, staff, alumni, and other friends.

Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity was first established in Chicago, Illinois, in November of 1902. It is a national organization composed of seventy-five student chapters and thirty alumni chapters. Student chapters are located only in class-A law schools which are members of the Association of American Law Schools. It is a great attribute for a university to have a chapter of Phi Alpha Delta located on its campus.

The Lamar Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta was organized in 1929 at the University of Mississippi. The fraternity was named for L. Q. C. Lamar, one of Mississippi's leading statesmen of the past.

Membership in this fraternity is obtained by those who fulfill the necessary scholarship and character qualifications. Phi Alpha Delta keeps the standards of the chapter high by strictly examining the record of each student who seeks membership in the Organization. It is a primary function of the fraternity to foster friendship, cooperation, and a high code of professional ethics among its many thousands of brothers throughout the nations.

The Alpha Epsilon Chapter of Phi Delta Chi was founded at the University of Mississippi in 1927. Two years later, in 1929, the fraternity became inactive and was not reactivated until 1951. Students who are outstanding in the School of Pharmacy may join the pharmaceutical fraternity, Phi Delta Chi. It is a national fraternity which was first established at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, in 1833.

The men in the chapter symbolize the two-fold purpose of the fraternity: brotherhood and hard work. The high ideals of the pharmacy profession have been fostered through their good fellowship and cooperation. The group works together to keep these standards high.

Although books, pills, powders, and labs occupy a great part of their time, the men also participate in social activities. The Phi Delta Chis hold various social functions during the year which prove that work and play can be combined successfully.

The oldest professional fraternity in the United States is Phi Delta Phi. International in scope, this legal fraternity is one of the enduring institutions among honorary fraternities which exist today. Mayes Inn of Phi Delta Phi was formed at the University of Mis-issippi in 1927. The members are selected from those law students who have displayed the highest qualities of scholarship and character in their legal training. The purpose of the fraternity is to promote culture and professional ethics in the legal profession.

Participation in Phi Delta Phi's activities offers the earnest law student unmatched opportunities for an early awareness of the practical legal problems and techniques not emphasized in the curriculum, as well as helpful guidance to a more general understanding of the profession for which he is studying to be a member.

Phi Eta Sigma is the national honor society for freshmen and sophomore men. To be eligible for membership, a man must have a 3.5 grade point average the first semester of his freshman year or he must have this average any time his sophomore year regardless of whether he met the requirements his freshman year.

Among its projects to advance scholarship among freshmen are: the publication of "How to Study" pamphlets for freshmen orientation providing scholarship experts to speak during orientation, and compiling a file of available tutors in different subjects for freshmen.

The fraternity's sole aim is to encourage high scholarships among freshmen. Under the fine leadership of its officers and with the aid of its outstanding members, Phi Eta Sigma accomplished this goal by increasing the over-all average of the freshmen men.

The Pi Beta Tau Association was formed at the University of Mississippi in the Spring of 1963 by the School of Engineering, desiring to be incorporated in the National Engineering Honor Society, The Tau Beta Pi Association, for the purpose of marking in a fitting manner those who have conferred honor upon their Alma Mater by distinguished scholarship and exemplary character as undergraduates in the field of engineering.

Eligibility for membership in The Pi Beta Tau Association is determined by excellence shown in scholarship, character, personality and practicality. The Seniors must rank in the upper fifth of their class and the Juniors in the upper eighth of their class in the School of Engineering. The fields of engineering are Chemical, Civil, Electrical, Geological and Mechanical Engineering.

This year marks the first year of the University of Mississippi Chapter of Pi Beta Tau. This year the association has done much to create and develop a spirit of unity and activity among those in the fields of engineering profession.

The Alpha Theta chapter of Pi Sigma Epsilon was chartered on the Ole Miss campus in the spring of 1963. This National Fraternity in Marketing, Sales Management and Selling requires that its members manifest an interest in the selling profession as a career, obtain minimum academic standing required for graduation, and show leadership qualities through participation in college activities.

The purposes of Pi Sigma Epsilon are to create a collegiate brotherhood of men who are interested in the advancement of marketing, sales management and selling as a career; to promote the study of marketing, sales management and selling; to bring together academically qualified students who express a desire to enter the selling profession; to stimulate the improvement of methods and techniques in the fields of marketing, sales management and professional selling; to instill in its members the highest possible ethical standards of the profession.

The Ole Miss Chapter of the Society for the Advancement of Management endeavors to strengthen management education and further the growth of students by stimulation their thinking, widening their knowledge, and developing a better understanding of business and the free-enterprise system. The basic objectives of the Ole Miss Chapter are: (1) to bring closer together executives in business and students preparing to go into business; (2) to serve as an effective medium for the exchange and distribution of information, problems, policies and methods of industry and management; and (3) to provide students with the opportunity of participation in organizing, planning directing and controlling the activities of an organization dedicated to the promotion and advancement of the art and science of management. Activities such as meeting, conferences, news bulletins and research projects and community service give students an insight into the practice of the management profession.

The University Dancers is an organization designed to further the study of modern techniques and to give the members an opportunity to pursue compositional problems and to choreograph dancers for performance purposes.

Tryouts for potential members are held in the early fall. Selection of dancers is based on skill in dance and composition.

During the first semester, the group worked on technique and group composition, and performed in lecture demonstrations for several organizations on campus. In December choreography was begun for the Spring Recital which was held in March.

In addition to the Spring Recital, the Dancers take part in productions presented by the drama and music departments. They have also appeared on educational television programs and have performed for various high school groups.

This group works under the supervision of Miss Gene McCutchen, an Assistant Professor in the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

The Westminster Fellowship is an integral part of the total fellowship of the Presbyterian Church. Its calling is to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the academic community. Its mission is to present the truth of the Christian faith amid conflicting viewpoints on the campus, to witness to the redeeming work of Jesus Christ and to help students recognize their responsibilities to God.

The Westminster Fellowship has a varied program of worship, study fellowship and service encompassing a wide range of interests. WF activities center at Westminster House which is located on University Avenue across from the Mary Buie Museum. The advisory and counselor is Reverend Clifford A. McKay, Jr., the Presbyterian University Pastor.

The Presbyterian Church of Oxford sponsors the Westminster Fellowship. Membership is Primarily composed of Presbyterian students; but it is open to any student at the University who wishes to donate his time and talents to a working, church-sponsored organization.

The purpose of the Westminster fellowship is three-fold: to help each member have a personal, growing relationship with Christ; to unify the students through Christian work, study, and fellowship; to develop a responsible sense of churchmanship to the students of Ole Miss by presenting Christian witness as individuals and as a group.

The WRA was founded at the University of Mississippi in 1926 and the importance of this organization has increased since that time. It is governed by a board of representatives from each dormitory and sorority that sponsors a team in any of the intramural sports.

The purpose of the WRA is to provide various activities such as basketball, volleyball, badminton, and ping-pong for girls at the University of Mississippi to enjoy during their leisure time. A sensation is stirred up by awarding points to the winning groups. These points are added up and the group with the greatest number of points wins a trophy.

The honorary scholastic organization of the Ole Miss campus for freshmen women is Alpha Lambda Delta.

To be eligible for membership, a woman student must maintain a 3.5 average throughout her freshman year. The freshmen coeds who keep this average are initiated at the beginning of their sophomore year. There can be no failing grades on the records of Alpha Lambda Delta. The rigid requirements set up for membership make it indeed an honor to be asked to join.

Alpha Lambda Delta has set forth as its purposes the encouragement of superior scholastic attainment among freshmen women and the promotion of a high standard of learning at "Ole Miss."

The Canterbury Association of the Episcopal Church on the University campus provides the opportunity for students to develop their religious lives in concert with their social and intellectual growth experienced in college life. Canterbury meets each Sunday evening for prayer, fellowship, and learning. The Sunday programs consist of speakers, panels, films, and discussions. On Thursday afternoons Episcopal students gather at the "Y" Building for a celebration of the Holy Communion. In addition to its own program, the Canterbury Association supports fully the Religious Emphasis program sponsored by the Committee of One Hundred and the Department of Religious Life. It is our belief that through Canterbury the college student has a unique opportunity to keep abreast of the very best and the latest thinking taking place in our world today.

In addition to this, the students must be recommended by the faculty of the Department of Music. Sigma Alpha Iota is a national honorary musical fraternity for women, and it is found on the campuses of leading colleges and universities of the United States.

Whenever famous musicians visit the university, they are met by members of Sigma Alpha Iota and are shown around the campus. Many times this group has the distinct privilege of having private meetings with these outstanding figures in the musical world. This gives them an opportunity for personal instruction and advice that they would not ordinarily have had.

ARMY R. O. T. C.

The Department of Military Science, which is a unit of the Army Reserve Officers Training Corps, falls under the joint jurisdiction of the University of Mississippi and the Department of the Army. The Army R.O.T.C. prepares college men for positions of leadership and trains as junior officers those students who display the qualities of character, scholarship, and leadership necessary for an Officer in the Army of the United States.

The course of instruction offered by the Army is divided into two phases, the Basic Course and the Advanced Course. The Basic Course is required for all entering Freshmen and it is necessary for the Basic Course to be completed before a student can go into the advanced program. The Advanced Course leads to a commission as a Second Lieutenant in one of the fourteen branches of the United States Army.

NAVAL R. O. T. C.

The Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps was established at the University of Mississippi in June of 1946 for the purpose of training carefully selected young men for commissions as Ensigns in the United States Navy or as Second Lieutenants in the United States Marine Corps.

The Department of the Navy pays for four full years of college for those who are enrolled as Regular Students in the program. A student may become a Regular by passing nation-wide competitive examinations, both physical and mental. A student who fails in this may become a Contract Student by applying directly to the unit on campus and passing a physical examination. A Contract Student receives a monthly subsistence his last two years.

The University of Mississippi is proud to be one of fifty-two colleges and universities in the country who have this program.

GREEKS

Rush . . . with its sincere smiles and numerous handshakes.

Sororities entertain with varied skits.

Rushees and rushers become acquainted.

BROTHERS . . .

The Greeks are an integral part of all phases of University life. Scholarship, leadership and participation in campus activities are stressed in the various groups. Such functions as Rush, pledge swaps, date suppers, Stunt Night, Sing-Song, and elections are actively supported by these groups. This may lead the casual observer to believe the Greeks exist only for social benefit which is a misconception.

Various service projects on a local, state, and national basis are sponsored by the Greeks. The numerous fraternal organizations on the Ole Miss campus have descended from humble beginnings. Men and women in different locales formed small groups with definite ideals in been proud to see the services rendered by the mind. These "pioneer Greeks" would have fraternal organizations which have grown steadily and exert a great deal of influence not only nationally, but worldwide.

The Greeks are bound together by tradition, loyalty and friendship. History has molded the Greeks and at the same time the Greeks have molded history.

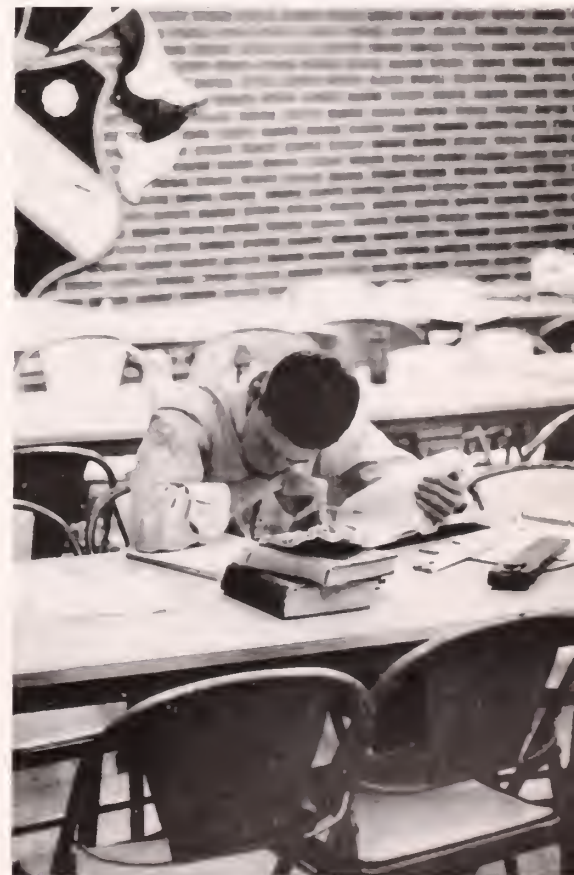

Festive balls highlight the year.

Ole Miss Homecoming decorations greet visitors and alumni.

The Greeks encourage the higher education of man.

Who spread that nasty rumor about a color TV for a prize?

Sororities and fraternities display the spirit of giving at Christmas.

Brotherhood remains through thick and thin.

Fraternity houses provide a place for informal gatherings.

"I'm not sure I belong here."

Yes, parties make the world go 'round.

SENIOR PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

The Pan-Hellenic Council of the University of Mississippi is a member of the National Pan-Hellenic Conference, which has organizations on the campuses of the leading colleges and universities in the United States. Its purposes are to act as a governing body for all sororities, and to further active cooperation and understanding among the sororities, between sorority and non-sorority women, and between the sororities and the University.

Always working for the good of the University, Pan-Hellenic strives to promote fine intellectual achievement and scholarship, to maintain high social standards, and to promote worthy projects on and off the campus. All regulations concerning formal and informal rush are formulated and enforced by this council.

The council is composed of the presidents of each of the sororities and two additional representatives from each group. Each representative is elected by her own sorority. The officers of the council are selected on a rotation basis with each sorority having an officer of Pan-Hellenic at regular intervals.

The oldest secret sorority for college women, Alpha Delta Pi, was founded in 1851 at Wesleyan Female College in Macon, Georgia, the oldest women's college in the world. Today there are one hundred six ADPi chapters in the United States and Canada, and its total membership makes it one of the largest sororities in National Pan-Hellenic.

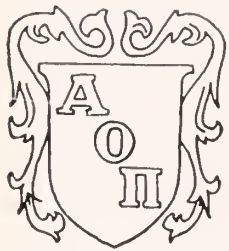

Delta Sigma Chapter came to the University of Mississippi in 1960, and have made vast progress since that time. ADPi's are active in numerous phases of campus life-as dormitory officers, military sponsors, ASB committee members, Campus Senators, Sigma Alpha Iota, Epsilon Gamma Epsilon, the Committee of 100, Women's Recreational Association, the Concert Singers, Alpha Lambda Delta, Cwens, and Mortar Board. This is a genuine distinction for a sorority which has been on campus such a short length of time.

This year the ADPi's moved into an English-style house on Sorority Row. It has been completely remodeled and its serene, elegant decor is a source of pride to the members of the chapter.

The pin of Alpha Delta Pi is diamond-shaped and bears clasped hands. The sorority colors—blue and white, and the violet, its flower, are an inspiration to the members to live up to the ideals stressed by the founders of the sorority—"the trails of intellectual and moral worth, dignity of character, and propriety of department."

The new AOPi house, recently completed on Rebel Drive, houses forty-six girls and included a chapter room, dining room, and a formal living room. It is the culmination of years of hard work and planning by Nu Beta actives and pledges, other chapter, alumnae groups, parents, and friends. What makes it special to the girls of Alpha Omicron Pi is something intangible—it is the warmth and love of the AOPi family.

Friendship is a promise of Alpha Omicron Pi, and it was a true friendship that its four founders pledged, one to another, as they met in a little room high above the stacks in the library at Barnard College on January 2, 1897. The friendship pledged that day has grown to include seventy-one collegiate chapters, one hundred and sixty-one alumnae chapters, and over thirty thousand members throughout the United States and Canada.

Since Nu Beta Chapter came to Ole Miss in 1957, its members have endeavored to establish high standards in scholarship, character, integrity, and active campus participation. They have succeeded in all phases of campus life as they have several campus senators, members of the Committee of 100, and top officers in Theta Sigma Pi, Sigma Delta Pi, Kappa Epsilon, and Sigma Alpha Iota.

The AOPi's begin their year of social activities with the Showboat party during Rush Week. The Rose Ball is their social highlight, but they also have numerous other parties during the year. These many get-togethers help to instill a close feeling of loyalty and friendship in the girl of AOPi.

CHI OMEGA

At the University of Arkansas on April 5, 1895, Chi Omega was brought into existence by five young college women. Dr. Charles Richardson, Kappa Sigma, was made sole honorary member for his assistance in planning the organization. Chi Omega has now grown to include one hundred and thirty-two active chapters and over eighty thousand women, the largest of any national sorority.

The colors, cardinal and straw, and the white carnation are looked upon as symbols of loyalty by the girls who wear the X-and horseshoe pin. Chi Omega encourages the new ideas and individuality of its members, and at the same time unites them under a close bond of friendship and helpfulness.

Tau Chapter is one of which Chi Omega's founders could well be proud, for its members have excelled in scholarship and in extra-curricular participation. This year there are many Chi O's in the campus spotlight such as the Editor of the OLE MISS yearbook, three Campus Favorites, a freshman cheerleader, varsity cheerleader, Army, Navy, and Air Force Sponsors, and many ASB Committee members. Chi Omegas are also numerous in such groups as CWENS Mortar Board, and Alpha Lambda Delta, honorary organizations on the Ole Miss campus.

Parties are a definite part of campus life and Tau Chapter acts as hostess many times during the year for such gatherings as a Christmas party, slumber parties, date suppers, and their Spring Formal. An annual Community Service Day project is also sponsored by the Chi Omegas.

This year Tau Chapter is exceedingly proud of their new chapter house located on Rebel Drive. An outstanding Georgian structure, it houses thirty-eight girls in air-conditioned comfort. This new home is the culmination of many plans and dreams brought to realization.

DELTA DELTA DELTA

OFFICERS

Priscilla Martiniere President

On Thanksgiving Eve, 1888, four young ladies at Boston University started a new sorority—Delta Delta Delta. The pansy, the pearl, the pine tree and the colors silver, gold and blue soon became known as the symbols of this bond of sisterhood. Today there are 106 active collegiate chapters with over sixty seven thousand members. Chi Chapter, established at Ole Miss in 1904, was among the first of these.

The Tri Delts at Ole Miss are always among the top sororities in scholarship and participation in campus activities. This year they have two freshmen cheerleaders, one varsity cheerleader, dormitory officers, Rebelettes, members of the Concert Singers, members of the Committee of 100, an Ole Miss beauty, military sponsors, the president of Mortar Board, three campus favorites, and many other girls who are active in campus organizations. Tri Delts are noted especially for their spirit and ingenuity.

Chi Chapter's Georgian style house is one of the most outstanding buildings on campus. The two slender columns framing the doorway are a preview of the elegant simplicity found within. A great source of pride to Tri Delts, this lovely house is a perfect place for the various parties with which the members entertain. They begin the year by entertaining rushes with a Kiddie Party, and continue with others, including the Spring formal, the Pine Party, and the Pansy Breakfast.

Delta Delta Delta is a sorority devoted to the principles of friendship, love, and sisterhood, as is expressed by its motto, "Let us steadfastly love one another."

Mingled with the traditions of the University of Mississippi are those of Delta Gamma Fraternity. During the Christmas holidays of 1873 at Oxford's Lewis School for Girls, three young pupils, formed their own society. With the golden anchor as its emblem, the small s'sterhood has grown to an international fraternity based upon those same ideals of friendship and loyalty upon which it was founded. Delta Gamma now includes ninety chapters, comprised of over 47,000 women united in the bonds of the fraternity.

The DG's are active in campus activities as they stress scholarship, leadership, and active participation in all facets of university life. This year, for the second consecutive time, a DG was elected Homecoming Queen. They also have Miss Ole Miss, a varsity cheerleader, a campus favorite, military sponsors, and Ole Miss beauty, two AWS officers, and two fraternity sweethearts. DGs may also be found in honorary organizations such as Mortar Board, Cwens, and Alpha Lambda Delta.

The girls of Alpha Psi, the mother chapter of Delta Gamma, take a special pride in their chapter house, for it includes a room in memory of the Founders. The house is the scene of all kinds of entertaining, from informal get-togethers to teas and date suppers.

Delta Gammas try earnestly to live up to their motto, "Do Good." They support the Delta Gamma Foundation's project, sight conservation and aid to the blind, and give an annual Christmas party for underprivileged children.

For nearly a century, the high ideals set forth by the founders of Delta Gamma have remained the same. It is these ideals which give to Delta Gammas everywhere a common bond and purpose.

Today there are one hundred chapters of Kappa Delta, all descended from the one founded at Longwood College in Farmville, Virginia, on October 23, 1897. The four young founders had great dreams of a sorority which would unite college women everywhere under the bonds of sisterhood, scholarship, social interest, and service.

The founders would have been pleased with Alpha Mu Chapter, for KD's are extremely active on the Ole Miss campus. Among their members are Army, Navy, and Air Force sponsors; a freshman and a varsity cheerleader; dormitory officers; a campus favorite; an Ole Miss beauty; Megaphone Club president; members of the Concert Singers, the University Dancers, and the University Players; members of Cwens and Mortar Board; a fraternity sweetheart; ASB committee members and active members of several religious denominational organizations. Kappa Deltas also do extensive philanthropic service, such as having a Christmas party for underprivileged children and sending a child to kindergarten each year.

The Southern Colonial Chapter house of the Ole Miss KD's is very beautiful with its columns, long shuttered windows, and massive fanlighted doorway. The spaciousness of its interior facilitates entertaining during the year. The KD's give date suppers, fraternity swaps, and informal dances. The most important social activities, however, are the Spring Formal, Founders Day Banquet, and White Rose Banquet.

The Kappa Delta sisters are united under the common bond of loyalty to the colors of emerald and pearl white, and to the pure white rose.

Delta Rho chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma was established on the Ole Miss campus sixteen years ago. Kappa was founded at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illinois, and has spread to include 86 collegiate chapters with common interests, ideals, and goals shared by the girls who wear the Golden Key.

Kappas can be found participating in many activities at Ole Miss, such as the University "Y," religious organizations, Student Education Association, University Players, Women's Recreational Association, Campus Senate, and various ASB Committees. Kappas have also won many University and state beauty titles, such as Miss University, an Ole Miss beauty, and finalists in the Best-Dressed contest. Scholarship is also stressed in the Kappa family, as is shown by their members in Phi Gamma Nu, Sigma Delta Pi, Mortar Board, Alpha Lambda Delta, and CWENS.

Throughout the year the chapter has various social functions, such as teas, open houses, date suppers, and fraternity banquets. At Christmas they give the Faculty Tea and a party for underprivileged children.

The Kappa House is the largest sorority house on campus, housing forty members. The spacious entrance hall, living room, and dining room are outstanding features of the chapter house, whose essential spirit is expressed by the following motto: "The mighty heart of our Kappa home is the culmination of efforts of many girls to live in harmony and sisterly love. This the tie which ties us all together . . ."

The second oldest sorority in the country, Phi Mu, was founded at Wesleyan Female College, Macon, Georgia, on March 4, 1852. Alpha Delta Chapter came to Ole Miss in 1924, the third sorority to come to the campus. The chapter stresses the development of self-confidence, personality, leadership ability, poise, and scholastic achievement, all of which are evident in a Phi Mu girl.

Outstanding honors have been won by members of Alpha Delta chapter such as finalists in the Miss University and Maid of Cotton pageants, two Rebel Queens, Navy sponsors, AWS officers, and several fraternity sweethearts. Also, the Phi Mus are active in many campus organizations and have held offices in BSU, "Y", Theta Sigma Phi, University Dancers, Phi Beta Lambda, University Players, and Phi Gamma Nu. Phi Mus are justly proud of their members in Mortar Board, CWENS, and Alpha Lambda Delta, scholastic organizations.

The Phi Mus entertain with various social functions during the year, such as open houses, date suppers, dances, Founders Day Banquet, foreign students' Christmas Dinner, and their spring formal. These are just a few of the events that flourish at the Phi Mu house.

Phi Mu holds an important spot in each member's heart. The warm congeniality that is always found in the Phi Mu Castle will forever provide moments of wonderful memories to each girl that enters into the bonds of Phi Mu.

The first organization of college women with the aims and policies of a national fraternity was Pi Beta Phi. Pi Phi was founded on April 28, 1867, at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illinois. Presently, the sorority has over one hundred active chapters located at leading colleges and universities in the United States and Canada with over sixty-five thousand initiated members. Pi Phi has nearly three hundred active alumnae clubs which serve even more to strengthen the ties of the sisterhood.

In 1912 Pi Beta Phi established a settlement school in Gatlinburg, Tennessee, which now offers unequalled opportunities for those in the mountain community. With the establishment of the school, Pi Phi was the first Greek letter organization to have a national philanthropy.

Gamma Chapter made its debut on the Ole Miss Campus in October, 1961. Since that time Pi Phi has shown remarkable progress in all phases of campus life. Members are active in various ASB committees, Epsilon Gamma Epsilon, Phi Beta Lambda, Committee of 100, Student Education Association and the OLE MISS staff. Scholarship is stressed in Gamma Chapter and the group received the honorary plaque for the highest scholastic average on campus. The Ole Miss Pi Phis also captured the First Place trophy in Intramural sports and then rounded out the year's activities by winning top honors in the annual Rebelee Festivities.

Pi Beta Phi is not an organization of mere social aims, but has stronger purposes—the development of fine character and qualities of leadership, the promotion of worthy scholarship, and service to others. The work, play, and ideals shared in the Pi Phi sisterhood help to make each member's college years a truly rewarding experience.

Nine patrician daughters of Southern families banded together to forge the first link in a chain that now binds more than 30,000 loyal women together in Zeta Tau Alpha. The fraternity was born on October 15, 1898, and was the first women's fraternity to be chartered in the State of Virginia by a special act of the legislature.

Gamma Delta chapter came to Ole Miss in 1939 and since that time has been active in all fields of endeavor on the campus. Zetas participate in various campus organizations, such as Women's Recreation Association, University Players, Campus Senate, Sigma Alpha Iota, and many ASB Committees. Zetas can be found in honorary organizations such as CWENS, Mortar Board, and Alpha Lambda Delta. Members of the fraternity are officers in Theta Sigma Pi, Mortar Board, dormitories, University Singers, "Y", Angel Flight, and Student Education Association. In recent years, Zetas have held such top honors as Miss Ole Miss, Secretary of the Associated Student Body, Miss Majorette of Mississippi, Naval ROTC sponsor, Miss Oxford, favorites, and beauties.

The Zetas are especially happy this year because of the complete remodeling of their chapter house and the addition of a new wing to enlarge its capacity.

Zeta Tau Alpha has given to every girl who wears the shield a heritage of lifelong privileges and friendships perpetuated beyond the period of college days—"Once a Zeta, always a Zeta." Zeta's principles of service to its own membership, to those outside the fraternity, and to the community, is manifest in its scholarship, philanthropic and war service programs.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

DALE BARNES, President of I.F.C.

The organization designed to regulate and govern the activities of all social fraternities on the University campus is the Inter-Fraternity Council. The primary function of the IFC is to serve as a governing body of the sixteen fraternities. It is composed of two representatives chosen from each fraternity and is governed by four officers elected from the membership of the council itself. The council meets bi-monthly to discuss the mutual problems of the fraternity system. Another duty of the council is carried out each year in the planning, setting up, and enforcing of rules for fraternity rush.

Throughout the coordination of activities, the Inter-Fraternity Council attempts to unite the fraternities in a spirit of friendly brotherhood, to promote scholarship, to encourage new fraternities and to develop existing chapters and individuals in the fraternity system.

MISS LONA WILLIAMS

Nationally, Alpha Tau Omega, is one of the oldest and largest fraternities. The Delta Psi Chapter of the Taus was founded at Ole Miss in 1927 and has risen to become the well-rounded fraternity it is today. Spirit and enthusiasm are shown by members participating in many campus activities, such as student government, military organizations, religious, and honorary groups.

Last year the Taus were high in scholarship. Also, the Chapter has never been below the campus all men's average in grades.

The ATO's entertain annually with their Spring formal which is their main social event each year. The Spring is a busy season for the Taus as they participate in an annual service project in Lafayette County. With the aid of a different sorority each year, the men rebuild the home of a needy family in this area.

This year the ATO's are very proud of the new addition to their house which was completed this summer. The chapter house can accommodate forty of its members. The new addition provides adequate facilities such as the large patio, dance floor, and kitchen.

The ATO's boast of strong alumni associations throughout Mississippi. Some of the prominent men who belong to these ranks include: Dr. William D. McCain, President of the University of Southern Mississippi; Claude "Tad" Smith, Ole Miss Athletic Director; and Mr. George Street, the Assistant Director of University Development.

Through the years the Delta Psi Chapter of Alpha Tau Omega has earned quite a reputation for its outstanding contributions to our state both on and off the Ole Miss campus.

MISS JO BARTON

Since its founding in 1839, at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, Beta Theta Pi has been a leader academically and socially. The oldest major national fraternity, Beta was also the first member of the famed Miami Triad. Beta Beta Chapter, which arrived at the University of Mississippi in 1879, is prominent for scholarship, distinguished alumni, and leadership in campus activities.

One of the primary duties of a Beta pledge is to maintain good academic standing, for the fraternity has long been known for its emphasis on scholarship. Nationally, Beta has been either at or near the top of the academic ladder for years.

The Beta Theta Pi alumni have brought distinction to the name of their fraternity. They include: John Satterfield, a past President of the American Bar Association; Frank Smith, Director of the Tennessee Valley Authority; Jamie Whitten, U.S. Congressman; Sydney Arleton, President of the Mississippi Bar Association; and John Fox, Jr., Dean of Admissions to the Ole Miss Law School.

This year the Betas are eagerly awaiting the completion of their new house. The new house will be the scene of various social functions such as informal get togethers and the Spring Formal, their social highlight of the year.

Although the pink rose is the national flower of Beta Theta Pi, the Chapter at Ole Miss favors the Magnolia. Betas everywhere proudly display pink and blue as their fraternity colors, and they all honor the dragon.

MISS DAMARIS DODSON

The first fraternity to be established on the Ole Miss campus and in the state of Mississippi, was Delta Kappa Epsilon. The Dekes have molded the history of our campus.

Delta Kappa Epsilon takes pride in its many outstanding alumni and their contributions to our university. Among such notable figures are Henry Minor Faser, who founded the Ole Miss Pharmacy School and Benjamin Lowry, Captain of the University Greys. At present five Dekes are on the University faculty. Outstanding men such as Cole Porter, Theodore Roosevelt, J. P. Morgan, and Admiral Robert E. Perry are also Deke alumni.

This year Chi Chapter is hosting the one hundred nineteenth International Delta Kappa Epsilon Convention in Memphis with the help of Brother Henry Loeb.

The Dekes are known on this campus for having some of the best parties and this reputation is zealously maintained each year. Christmas and Homecoming spotlight Deke parties in the Fall. Last Spring the Chi Chapter introduced a new tradition by having a houseparty in Florida in place of their annual Spring formal. The idea proved very successful and the Dekes are looking forward to another houseparty this Spring.

Party time, however, is not the only occupation of the Dekes as they sponsor various service projects, one of which is their Christmas Party for underprivileged children.

The Deke Chapter lends itself to both studying and having a good time with a fully equipped recreation room, patio, sundeck, and a large dance floor.

Each member of Delta Kappa Epsilon strives to live up to fraternal ideals set by the founding fathers. This is exemplified by the brotherhood shown in Chi Chapter.

DELTA PSI

In 1855, the Phi Chapter of Delta Psi colonized on the Ole Miss campus. Although they were the second fraternity established on the campus, they were the first fraternity on the Ole Miss campus and in the state to build a fraternity house.

Delta Psi was established at Columbia University in New York City in 1847 and chose azure, blue, and gold for its colors.

Traditional secrecy is one of the outstanding concepts in Delta Psi. Because they feel that secrecy is a uniting factor in their brotherhood, they withhold the names of their officers. Also important is the fact that they do not allow the back of their pins to be seen.

During the school year, Delta Psi's and their dates enjoy various parties and outings. The most eventful of these is their Spring formal, the Saints and Angels Ball.

Throughout the years, Delta Psi has been known for producing leaders. Among these are the late Judge Hemingway, for whom Hemingway Stadium was named; the first Editor of the OLE MISS, G. Garcaud Lyell; William Barbour, President of the Ole Miss alumni; former Governor Hugh White; Representative Will Whittington; and Speaker of the House Walter Sillers.

Delta Psi has been an outstanding figure in the history of the greek fraternities and it has remained one of the old-line, Ivy league fraternities. Brotherhood is evident in Phi Chapter as the men are always striving to uphold the ideals and principles upon which they were founded.

MISS CAROLYN CARLTON

A group of Confederate soldiers at Washington and Lee in Lexington, Virginia, banded themselves together under the name of Kappa Alpha Order on December 2, 1865. General Robert E. Lee, the spiritual father, was President of Washington and Lee at the time and it is to him that many ideals of KA are traced.

There are now eighty-three active Kappa Alpha chapters, all located "South of the Mason-Dixon line" with over fifty thousand members.

The Alpha Upsilon Chapter was established on the University of Mississippi campus on January 12, 1900. Since that time the Kappa Alpha's have produced leaders in all phases of campus life such as the President of the Student Body, Student Judicial Council member, Editor of the Mississippian, and various other school offices. The men of KA are also active in Intramurals as they won the football intramural championship this Fall.

The KA social calendar is always filled and numerous parties are highlighted during the various seasons such as the Hayseed Party, Beachcomber Party, the Rose Ball and The KA Old South Ball. Along with exciting Homecoming festivities this year the KA's won first prize for their Homecoming decorations for the second year in a row.

The aim of the Kappa Alpha Order is "to train young college men to cherish the southern ideal of character by honoring and protecting pure womanhood, practicing courtesy and self-control and preferring self respect to ill-gotten gain."

MISS MILDRED ANN JAMES

Although the first American chapter of Kappa Sigma was organized in 1869 at the University of Virginia, the fraternity was founded in Italy at the University of Bologna in 1400. Delta Xi Chapter, which came to the University of Mississippi in 1926, is one of the 134 chapters in forty-five states and two Canadian provinces.

The National organization of Kappa Sigma provides many advantages for the members of its active chapters. The Kappa Sig Endowment Fund affords scholarship loans, leadership training schools, chapter house loans, and international and regional meetings for fellowship and brotherhood.

In its thirty-eight years on campus, Kappa Sigma has been important in every activity, for the fraternity believes that full participation in many different phases of college life is the main ingredient for a prosperous four years at Ole Miss. The fraternity is also justly proud of its reputation for having outstanding parties. These include theme parties, a Homecoming dance, a Christmas formal, and the Stardust Ball in the Spring.

Kappa Sigma's importance is partly shown by the quality of its alumni. Delta Xi Chapter has endowed the state and nation with Rhodes Scholars, a governor, and outstanding business and professional men. Perhaps the most famous Kappa Sigma was Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy.

This year the Kappa Sig's are extremely proud of their new house, which was dedicated during Homecoming festivities. Doctor J. M. Ward of the University Medical School in Jackson, District Grand Master, and Mr. Baxter Elliott, President of the Kappa Sigma House Corporation, were some prominent Kappa Sigma alumni who were present for the dedication ceremony.

Kappa Sigma embodies the finest traditions of brotherhood and steadfast allegiance. The symbolic colors of the fraternity-scarlet, green, and white are honored by the members of this fraternity.

MISS DOROTHY DUNCAN JONES

Since its arrival on the Ole Miss Campus in 1877, Phi Delta Theta has come to mean friendship, learning, and integrity. Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, was the birthplace of this international fraternity which began in 1848 and has now grown to 123 chapters with over ninety six thousand initiated members.

Mississippi Alpha has produced leaders in every field of endeavor. Among these honors are President of ODK, President of the Engineering School, Executive Assistant to the Student Body President, and numerous positions in honorary organizations on campus.

Nationally, the Ole Miss Phis have been recognized in scholarship by receiving the Ward Trophy, awarded annually to the Phi Chapter with the highest scholastic average in the nation, for five of the last six years. Mississippi Alpha was also recognized at the Phi Delta Theta national convention when awarded the Community Service Day Trophy for renovating the Lafayette County Old Folks Home. And for two consecutive years Mississippi Alpha was awarded the Founder's Trophy, given to the most outstanding Phi Chapter in the nation. Selection is based on excellence in scholarship, service, and campus leadership.

Phi brothers also find time for a full social life and entertain frequently with such events as the Ivy League Weekend, "Moneymaker" parties, and their annual Blue and White Formal, which is held in the Spring.

The Phis of Ole Miss earnestly strive to live up to the ideals upon which the chapter is based—friendship, learning, and integrity.

From the small beginning of seven men, who banded together to preserve a friendship, has grown the present Fraternity of Phi Epsilon Pi. Since its founding on November 23, 1904, at the College of the City of New York, it has become an organization possessing thirty-eight active chapters, thirty-five alumni associations, and a total membership of over thirteen thousand men. In 1921, Phi Epsilon Pi took its place among other national fraternities by being admitted as a senior member of the National Interfraternity Conference.

Alpha Sigma Chapter came to the University of Mississippi on February 16, 1935, and has been active on campus ever since. Phi Ep has produced leaders not only on campus but on a national scale. Among these prominent alumni are Joseph Altman, Mayor of Atlantic City; Marshall Goldberg, former All-American football player; Jack Martin, former administrative assistant to President Eisenhower; Allan Rothenberg, recipient of the Congressional Medal of Honor; Reverend Dr. Jonah B. Wise, famed theologian; and Colonel William Friedman, Chief of Army Signal Intelligence Service.

An Alpha Sigma Phi Ep was Editor-in-Chief of the OLE MISS for two consecutive years. Phi Eps are also noted for their active participation in campus politics and ASB affairs. These activities, however, are of secondary importance when compared to the brotherhood and unity which exist among those who honor the purple and gold.

MISS MARIE RITCHIE

Mississippi Alpha of Phi Kappa Psi, founded in 1857, is the third oldest social fraternity on the Ole Miss campus. Mississippi Alpha is one of sixty-two other chapters scattered throughout the United States which join together under the shield of Phi Kappa Psi.

The Phi Psi's take an active part in various phases of social life. The brothers take part in Homecoming, Dixie Week, Rebelee, and Student Government. True fraternal spirit is shown in the sponsoring of an underprivileged Children's Party at Christmas.

The Phi Kappa Psi's at Ole Miss add to their college life by staging a number of informal parties and dances as well as the annual Jacqueminot Ball in the Spring. Realizing that all play makes a poor student, the Phi Psis promote better scholarship among their members.

Phi Kappa Psi has provided many leaders in government, commerce, sports, and the arts. The boys point with pride to Woodrow Wilson, Billy Mitchell, and Perry O'Brien, who embodied the ideals of the fraternity. Mississippi Alpha, after being in the Magnolia State over a century, has alumni in all sections of the state.

MISS JUDY WILLIAMS

The Gamma Iota Chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha was founded on the Ole Miss campus in 1927 and since that time has grown into one of the largest and most outstanding of the fraternities on campus. Essentially a southern fraternity, being founded at the University of Virginia, Pi Kappa Alpha has steadily increased its membership and now is considered one of the five largest fraternities in the United States.

In keeping with their heritage, the Pikes live in a colonial-type chapter house which has proven to be one of the major architectural additions to the campus in recent years. The Pike house is the scene of every type of social event during the Ole Miss season from Open Houses and pledge swaps to the famous Roman Ball, which has become the outstanding social event of the fall semester. Other parties for which they are well-known on the campus are the rollicking Playboy Party, at which the Playmate of the Year is selected, informal dances, date suppers, and the Dream Girl Ball at which the Pikes announce the identity of their sweetheart, the Dream Girl of Pi Kappa Alpha.

In demonstrating their interest in school affairs this year the Pi Kappa Alpha's have captured honors such as ASB treasurer, three freshman cheerleaders, varsity cheerleader, campus senators, and University Scholars. Pike leadership has become synonymous with leadership at the University, and the Garnet and Gold colors of Pi Kappa Alpha have graced every responsible student office for the past decade.

Pi Kappa Alpha seeks to instill in its members the two principles of brotherhood and southern tradition upon which it was founded nearly a century ago.

Claiming the honor and distinction of being the first Southern fraternity, Sigma Alpha Epsilon traces its origins back to the University of Alabama, where on March 9, 1856 it was founded by a group of eight close confederates. Since that time it has grown to be the largest national college fraternity in the United States. SAE is noted for its fostering of the Interfraternity Council, as is shown by their establishment of the first national leadership headquarters building, Levere Memorial Temple at Evanston, Illinois.

Gamma Chapter was established at Ole Miss in 1866 by L. Q. C. Lamar one of the greatest Southern statesmen. In their endeavors to live up to Lamar's standards, local SAE's try hard in scholarship and in extracurricular activities. SAE's are found in almost every phase of campus life, and also are outstanding when as alumni they enter the business or professional world.

Their red brick chapter house, whose focal point is a long, white-columned veranda, is the scene of numerous parties, such as the spring formal, date suppers, a shipwreck, and the annual convict party. SAE's participate eagerly in these forms of entertainment, for a good social life is important to them.

The symbols of the fraternity are the colors, purple and gold; their flower, the violet; the goddess Minerva, symbol of wisdom, and her faithful attendants, the lions.

MISS NANCY COURSEY

Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, was the birthplace of the Sigma Chi Fraternity. Sigma Chi was the third fraternity to be founded at Miami during June, 1855, and was completed at the famous "Miami Triad." The Constantine Chapter of Sigma Chi was formed during the late part of the Civil War to perpetuate the fraternity in the South. This chapter has served as a model for chapters formed all over the world in times of war by many fraternities.

Eta Chapter, one of Sigma Chi's greatest, was established at the University in 1857, and since that time has consistently produced its share of leaders in every phase of campus life. The Sigma Chis have shown such leadership this year with President of ODK, President of the "M" Club, President of the Associated Student Body, and Assistant Editor of the OLE MISS. Eta Chapter has constantly been one of the top three fraternities in campus scholarship and its members are active in many honorary organizations. The numerous Sigma Chi Varsity football players are enthusiastically supported by two Sigma Chi Varsity cheerleaders. On the national scene are Sigma Chis such as Milton Caniff, award-winning creator of Steve Canyon; astronaut Walter Schirra who piloted his Sigma Seven, named for the fraternity; and Republican Senator Barry Goldwater from Arizona.

The men of Eta Chapter enjoy a gala social season highlighted by such parties as the Redneck and Suppressed Desire parties, Sigma Chi Derby Day, and the Sweetheart Ball, at which the fraternity announces the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi.

The men of Sigma Chi are steadfastly loyal to the fraternity and strive to live up to their motto: "In Hoc Signo Vinces," which means, "In This Sign We Conquer."

MISS BETTY BUZARD

From their founding at Virginia Military Institute on January 1, 1869, Sigma Nu has grown to one hundred and thirty-two chapters in forty-six states, the District of Columbia, and Canada. Epsilon Xi Chapter was formed on this campus in 1927 and has become their third largest.

The most versatile home of the men of Sigma Nu can boast the only heated in-door swimming pool belonging to a fraternity. It also has accommodations for forty men, a comfortable lounge, dining room, and chapter room.

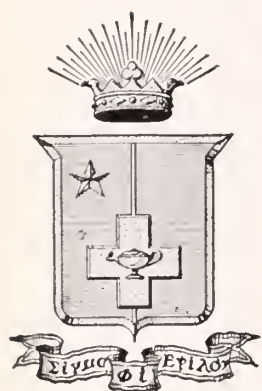

The versatility of the Sigma Nus is evident from their participation in all phases of campus activity. This year they have more members in ODK than any other fraternity, seven Carrier Scholars, and President Pro Tem of the Senate. Last year they captured the Over-All Intramural title along with several single sports trophies. The present Editor of the Mississippian, Chairman of the Student Judicial Council, and President of the School of Business and Government are Sigma Nus. In the national fraternity awards, a past Commander was given the Achievement of the Year Award.

In social events, the Sigma Nus entertain guests with a wide variety of parties. Their annual White Star Ball and Roaring Twenties Party are main events of the year.

The Sigma Nus stress varied activities adapted to each individual member. Epsilon Xi Chapter seeks to reach its goals by inspiring each brother to live by their creed, "To believe in the life of love; to walk in the way of honor; to serve in the light of truth."

MISS NANCY LOTTERHOS

Twelve divinity students founded Sigma Phi Epsilon on November 1, 1901, at Richmond College, in Richmond, Virginia. These students met weekly to share each other's company and from this brotherhood grew Sigma Phi Epsilon—the Fraternity with the Heart.

Because of the fraternity's association with the American Heart Association and the badge which its members wear, Sig Eps enjoy true brotherhood which is expressed in this motto: "Brotherhood is free and begins and ends with the Heart; We enjoy a true brotherhood."

Sigma Phi Epsilon is now the second largest national fraternity in the United States. On this campus the Sig Eps have shown outstanding capabilities since 1928 in all phases of campus life—political, religious, and academic.

The scholarship program in Sigma Phi Epsilon provides for awards to chapters and to individual members for their academic achievement. The Clifford B. Scott Key, for the highest average in each chapter and the Du Bach Award for the greatest scholastic improvement are among the awards which are presented each year.

The main social event of the season is the annual Spring formal, the Queen of Hearts Ball. A Hawaiian Luau and Country Party are also annual events on the Sig Ep social calendar.

The Sig Ep's strive to develop the whole man and make him a wholesome addition to society. The fraternity achieves this by working closely with the University and filling the social and spiritual needs of each member.

Four students at Vincennes University, Vincennes, Indiana, met on February 26, 1897, and founded Sigma Pi Fraternity. The objectives of Sigma Pi are to establish a brotherhood of, and for, college men; to Promote scholarship; to advance truth and justice; to diffuse culture; and to encourage chivalry among men. Through a well-balanced program of social events and many other activities, Sigma Pi aims to make for better citizenship, prepare its members to cope with the problems of life, and instill within them an appreciation of life's real values.

The Sigma Pi badge, symbolic in all respects, is a Greek cross of gold, bearing a raised oval of blue enamel with an emerald at its center between the Greek letters for Sigma and Pi. The arms of the Sigma Pi Greek-cross badge display respectively a scroll, a balance, a wreath, and ten stars arranged as a triangle. The pledge button is purple, shaped like a shield, and bears a white Greek cross.

Will Kipling, a well-known news correspondent in Washington, D.C., is among the nationally famous Sigma Pi alumni. Sigma Pi men are outstanding in all walks of life.

Sigma Pi's, through their service projects, have become affectionately known as "Big brothers" to local underprivileged children.

To add a special lilt to their festive social events, the ten-year-old Beta Gamma Chapter engages in an Orchid Ball and a Shipwreck party. Their colors are lavender and white, and the flower is the lavender orchid.

Theta Kappa Phi and Phi Kappa united in September of 1958 to become the new national Catholic fraternity. In May of 1959 the Ole Miss Chapter proudly assumed the name of Mississippi Chi of Phi Kappa Theta.

Phi Kappa Theta is presently composed of fifty-five active chapters and six colonies. Noteworthy Phi Kappa Theta alumni include Ed McCauley, coach of the St. Louis Hawks, and the Most Reverend Joseph Brunini, Bishop of Natchez-Jackson.

Academic excellence on campus is fostered among Phi Kappa Theta members and many have won academic scholarships.

Each member manifests public spirit and levels interest in all that concerns the life and welfare of the school. Phi Kappa Theta's official flower is the red rose and the fraternity's colors are red, gold, and cardinal purple.

 Dan Rabinowitz*Treasurer*

This organization is composed of two pledges from each fraternity. These representatives are selected by their individual pledge classes and serve for the entire year. The council is also composed of two representatives from the Senior Inter-Fraternity Council who are elected to serve as advisors of Junior IFC for organizational purposes.

The purpose of the Junior Inter-Fraternity Council is to instill in its membership the principles of the fraternity system. In doing this, the representatives may give to their individual fraternities an incentive to improve standards, thereby cultivating a better environment where manhood may flourish. The council also acts as a service organization, carrying out projects designated by the Senior Inter-Fraternity Council.

Durwood Herbert

IN MEMORIAM

His life was perhaps short, but filled with all noble and pleasant experiences our world might offer any man. In all respects a Christian gentlemen, Durwood exemplified the image of what others strove to be. Courteous, industrious, diligent, and upright, he possessed an even greater virtue in that those who were his associates never ceased to enjoy his hearty companionship. His life will ever stand as a paragon, his death as the ultimate deprivation of all an individual could mean to the lives of others.
